

Chile Jolted Again

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—A series of three earthquakes sent thousands of men, women and children rushing in panic into the streets and countryside of southern Chile Tuesday.

Destructive quakes last May ravaged the area, killing hundreds and causing at least $550,000,000 damage.

Damaged walls crumbled and cracks opened up in some roads, but there were no early reports of severe destruction or casualties.

Shot Stops Hunted Man

LAREDO, Tex. (AP)—Curtis Lee Jones, 38, accused of murder, rape and kidnapping, gave up without a struggle Tuesday after a state patrolman fired a warning shotgun charge over his head.

Polaris Subs Get U.K. Base

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Macmillan told the House of Commons Tuesday Britain will furnish the United States with a base for roving nuclear submarines armed with Polaris missiles.

The site is in Scotland, in the Holy Loch of the River Clyde. February is the planned date for anchoring a submarine tender there. A floating dock will come later.

New Target Says Russia

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio warned Tuesday night that the planned British base for Polaris-carrying United States nuclear-powered submarines will be the target for "an inevitable retaliatory blow" if it is used for aggression.

Sub Outpost Opposed By Scottish

GLASGOW (Reuters)—Scots Tuesday night were generally opposed to a base for U.S. submarines with Polaris nuclear missiles which will be established 30 miles from here.

Glasgow's city trades council, representing 95,000 union members, scheduled a protest meeting, saying it was alarmed at the prospect of the base.

At Dumoon, the entrance to the Loch, Provost Mayoress Miss Catherine MacPhail said local people opposed it for fear the tourist industry might be spoiled.

NEW SESSION
The announcement, heard with hostility by the opposition Labor members, came after the Queen opened a new session of Parliament with the reading of the Throne Speech.

Macmillan said the submarine agreement will "serve and strengthen" the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

RESENT EXPOSURE
Labor members in Commons immediately attacked the Macmillan plan, saying the people of Scotland would resent exposure to destruction. The prime minister replied that a Polaris sub base would be less an enemy target than would bomber bases.

ROUTINE PATROL
Macmillan emphasized that U.S. submarines operating from the base will be on "routine patrol in peacetime" and that their real home ports will still be across the Atlantic in the United States.

Of the decision to conclude such an agreement with the United States, he said:

"It is in the tradition of Anglo-American co-operation in joint defence carried by successive British governments."

ALL ABOARD

With G. E. Mortimore

LIVE-WIRE furniture retailer Gene Wasserman has lost his gamble.

He and several helpers nine months ago took over the old three-story Brackman-Ker feed depot on Broad Street and turned it into a home goods store.

Working like field hands in clouds of ancient dust, they knocked down partitions, splashed paint and manhandled heavy furniture.

Mr. Wasserman called his place "Furniture City." He installed a white telephone and invited customers to use it free of charge. He put nickels in the meters of cars parked outside his store; sometimes paid customers' parking fines; displayed monkeys, raccoons and lion cubs in cages; gave away cold drinks.

He staged spectacular promotion stunts, including a "stay-awake marathon," in which he offered big prizes to anyone who could catch him or the staff asleep during 63 hours of continuous, night-and-day operation. (Nobody did.)

Mr. Wasserman's ingenuity and hard work earned him headlines in the trade journals. But he couldn't shout quite loud enough to pull in the number of customers he needed.

One block on either side, thousands of people streamed down the thoroughfares of Government and Douglas Streets. A good number of them swarmed in during the special events. The stay-awake marathon drew sizable crowds, including off-shift waitresses and nurses who bought apartments-full of furniture at 3 and 4 a.m.

But Mr. Wasserman couldn't draw enough of them down quiet Broad Street on ordinary days to keep the store running on the bright side of the ledger.

"It wasn't the promotions that were at fault," he told me yesterday, standing ruefully in the empty store. "The promotions were good, and not too expensive."

"We didn't have a good enough bookkeeping system..."

He said he would fill back orders and attend to customers' complaints "until the last complaint has been taken care of."

After that, what? Mr. Wasserman, a department-store furniture salesman until he went into business for himself, doesn't know.

Also hurt by the failure of the store is George Clutesi, Nootka Indian artist, who has been running a handicraft store in one section of the Furniture City floor, supplied free of charge to him by Mr. Wasserman.

However, George's business had been dead from the start, even though he had a number of unique tools, weapons on display—articles which had been in his family and other Nootka families for generations.

George is one of the few B.C. Indians who have ventured into the retail business in the white man's world. He will probably try again.

Meanwhile, the big building is standing vacant again, as it was when Mr. Wasserman chanced to walk by it, pressed his nose against the dusty window, and decided it would be a good place to try a furniture store.

Well, what would it be good for? If the fire chief approves, I think it might serve as a night club. A theatre group might find a home there, too.

But it will take some tasty bait, or a lot of shouting and a blaze of lights, to draw people off their usual routes. Customers walk certain paths as stubbornly as cats follow trails through the underbrush.

Your Good Health

Cola a Harmful 'Burper' Offers Nothing for Baby

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, MD

"Dear Dr. Molner: We know a couple who have a little girl, aged 3, who drinks various cola drinks all the time instead of milk or juices. They claim their doctor started them on it at the age of two weeks because 'it makes a child burp and is good for children.'"

"They say they have friends whose little boy drinks three bottles a day because of this same 'doctor's orders.' They laugh at us because we won't give our 6-month-old such drinks. What do you think?—Mr. and Mrs. F.S.R."

I think: Let 'em laugh, and be sorry for the children.

Besides, I question whether a doctor ever gave any such advice.

There's probably nothing to be gained in speculating on how this idiotic idea got started. All we can do is look at the facts. I have nothing against cola drinks, so long as they are intelligently used.

What's in them? Water, and bubbles, and sugar, and flavoring, and some caffeine, nothing a baby needs that he won't get from his natural staple, milk.

But some things are missing: The only food value is the sugar, and an infant gets that from milk, formula, juices. And the sugar in the usual foods is a better kind for the baby's purposes. There's no protein in cola drinks and protein is the building material of the body. And there are no vitamins.

No doubt the bubbles will make a child burp, but what's the purpose in giving an infant something that will make him burp? The only reason for burning a baby is to get rid of the air he has swallowed in the course of eating his food.

This whole crop of nonsense that your friends have been trying to force down your throats is just that: Nonsense! It is ridiculous to feed such stuff to a baby. A ridiculous deprivation of the food the baby should be getting instead, and besides it is probably downright harmful.

The harmful part, for a child, is the caffeine. It is a stimulant, just as the caffeine in coffee or tea is a stimulant. Babies don't need stimulants. Excess stimulation can lead to lack of sleep and nervousness.

"Dear Dr. Molner: Can one gain weight from liquids alone?—P.A.M."

Certainly, because liquids sometimes contain more calories than solid foods. See how much salt, or sugar you can dissolve in a full glass of water, without "running the glass over the top. You'll see what I mean. Or see how many more calories are contained in a pound of milk than in a pound of celery.

Anniversary in Algeria

Bloodbath Never Came

PARIS (UPI)—Algerian rebel premier Ferhat Abbas pledged Tuesday in Tunis to fight until France is defeated, and France braced itself on this sixth anniversary of the Moslem rebellion in Algeria for a war without end.

Battle-ready French troops patrolled Algiers' sunbaked streets and the borders of hostile Tunisia and Morocco in expectation of a new bloodbath but no major outbreak occurred.

IN BARCELONA

Gen. Raoul Salan, former commander-in-chief in North Africa, who slipped across the border Monday into Spain, still was reported in Barcelona.

GEN. RAOUL SALAN ... still in Spain

The government set up strict patrols to prevent his returning to Algiers to become the rallying point for a new revolt.

U.S. Spy Caught?

LONDON (UPI)—Tass news agency Tuesday reported the arrest of a "self-confessed U.S.-trained spy" sent into Russia to collect information on rocket installations.

Tass identified the alleged spy as Mikhail Platovskiy. The U.S. state department said he apparently was a Soviet citizen but had no other comment. Tass said he carried radio, code and printing equipment and was trained by U.S. agents in West Germany.

Two Germans named as his accomplices immediately denied any connection with the alleged spy ring.

Saanich Youth Sought

Missing from the Saanich home of a sister, a 14-year-old boy is thought to be heading for North Battleford, Sask.

Colin McLean, who disappeared Friday from the home of Mrs. Harry Schild, 4905 Townsend Drive, is about five feet, five inches tall, weighs 140 pounds, has brown eyes and reddish-brown hair, brushed back. He has a small mouth and pointed chin.

He is wearing a brown leather jacket, blue jeans, black suede shoes and rust-colored sweater with a white band across the chest. Information should go to Saanich police or Harry Schild at GR 9-6881.

by the army and right-wing settlers against the de Gaulle government.

The six-year war has cost 180,000 French and Moslem dead and is bleeding the French economy at the rate of $1,000,000,000 a year.

Only incident reported in Algeria occurred at Sebbaou, where a grenade was thrown through a cafe window, killing the French owner and injuring 10 others.

The usual midnight curfew was advanced an hour and a half. Roadblocks were set up on highways leading into the cities and trucks and cars carrying Moslems were searched for arms and bombs. Abbas ruled out further peace talks with the French and called for a federation of Tunisia, Morocco and an independent Algeria.

Rebel sources in Tunisia said they expect the UN to force France to hold a referendum in Algeria.

President Nasser of the United Arab Republic marked the anniversary by blaming France and other Western countries for what he said were the deaths of 1,000,000 Algerians killed in a "war of extermination."

Crime Crackdown

New Drink Laws Higher Pensions Due in Britain

LONDON (CP)—A new session of the British Parliament opened Tuesday with a government pledge to give "resolute support" to the United Nations and to work for the safeguarding of world peace.

The Queen, her crown sparkling, outlined the Conservative government's policy when she read the Speech from the Throne in the glittering chamber of the House of Lords.

The packed chamber of as-

Nine Holdups

$42,000

Stolen In Montreal

MONTREAL (CP)—Holdup artists struck at least nine times Monday, netting themselves about $42,500 in cash and jewelry.

Biggest holdup was staged at La Gaudeloupe, 175 miles east of Montreal, where four armed and masked men robbed a branch of La Banque Canadienne Nationale of $25,000.

Store owner Laureat Gosselin fired several shots as the bandits made their getaway.

In Montreal, two gunmen bound six persons with electrical wiring and escaped with $15,300 in goods and cash at a jewelry store.

Seven other holdups were staged in the city, netting thieves a total of $2,500 in cash.

sembled members of the Lords and Commons listened attentively to the nine-minute speech which described the improvement of relations between East and West as a "primary object" of government policy.

The speech promised increases in war and retirement pensions as well as legislation to "improve the protection of the community against crime."

LIQUOR CHANGES

Prime Minister Macmillan's government proposed to make the drinking laws more liberal and to standardize drinking hours. The government hoped also to reduce abuses which led to the establishment of shady clubs.

London's taverns now close at either 10.30 or 11 p.m., depending on what section of the town they are in. Customers in the country must call it quits at 10 p.m.

WIVES' CHARTER

Legislation also would provide for a new "housewives' charter"—a weights and measures bill which would compel traders to label goods clearly with their correct size and weight.

Cunard Steamship Co. Ltd. would be provided with financial assistance for the construction of a new trans-Atlantic liner to replace the old Queen Mary.

STUDENT AWARDS

An increase would be made in awards for students at universities and other institutions of higher education.

The session opened with the Conservatives holding a majority of more than 100 in the 630-seat House of Commons.

Indians Claim $9,000,000

OTTAWA (CP)—The Blackfoot Indian band of Glacier, Alta., has launched an Exchequer Court suit against the Crown alleging that mismanagement cost them millions of dollars.

The justice department will enter a statement of defence shortly on behalf of the Indian affairs branch of the citizenship department, officials said Tuesday. Ottawa lawyer Kenneth C. Binks, band solicitor here, said the damages could total $9,000,000.

SALE OF LAND

The complaints primarily concern sale of reservation land. The series of grievances was raised in 1958 with the Indian affairs branch and ventilated again last summer when Blackfoot Chief McHugh testified before the joint parliamentary committee on Indian affairs.

Compensation is sought for coal mined from land released to the crown in 1887. It is alleged that the Indians also lost out on timber surrendered to the Crown in 1892.

"INADEQUATE"

Lands sold "in breach of trust" to the CPR by the Crown produced inadequate compensation, says the complaint, and Ducks Unlimited, the private concern working to expand Western Canada's duck population, is alleged to have flooded a portion of the 150,000-acre reservation without approval being obtained from the band.

WITHOUT SANCTION

Chief McHugh also complained that 120,000 acres of reservation were sold at public auction in 1910 without the sanction—as required—of a majority of band members. Mr. Brown said the band possesses a document signed by several chiefs which surrenders the 120,000 acres for sale to non-Indians. The returns had gone into the band trust fund.

Pilots' Union Faces Crisis

MONTREAL (CP)—James Foy, president of the Canadian Air Line Pilots' Association, says it has run into one of the most serious situations in its 16-year history. He was referring to CALPA's dispute with Quebecair Ltd., which is in conciliation.

RCAF Choice

Recently appointed public relations officer for 2455 Aircraft Control and Warning Squadron (RCAF (Auxiliary), PO A. F. Smythe joined the squadron in 1955. He served with the RCAF during the war.

Columbia Financing Word

B.C. Still Waits

B.C. is still awaiting word from Ottawa as to the financing arrangements for the proposed $450,000,000 Columbia River hydro project, according to Premier Bennett.

"If they're not going to give us any help then we will have to look elsewhere," he said.

Justice Minister Davie Fulton said in Ottawa last week that the federal government had made an offer to B.C. earlier this year.

MAY OR MAY NOT

"Fulton might be doing it," said the premier. "He may or may not know something about finances. People say we have been going back and forth. If these questions had been answered before we wouldn't be asking them now."

Premier Bennett added: "The federal government has never given us the real answer as to what they will do on the financing of the Columbia."

He said a letter he sent federal Finance Minister Donald Fleming Oct. 27 asking for specific answers to five points had never been answered.

The points were: What is the maximum amount Ottawa is prepared to lend on the Columbia development; would Ottawa want a B.C. government guarantee for the loan; what is the interest rate proposed; what is the term of the loan; and what is the amount of the outright grant Ottawa is prepared to give towards the development?

"This letter is proof that the federal government has never given us the information," said the premier. "All they've got to say is 'yes, yes, no, no.' That's all B.C. is asking."

The last state lottery in the U.S., that of Louisiana, ended in 1890 with passage of a federal law prohibiting use of the mails.

A Look at the Results

THOUGH the results of the four by-elections in the eastern provinces will bring little comfort to the Conservative government, they should bring even less to the Liberal party whose much vaunted boast of a total sweep failed to materialize.

The outstanding feature of the contest was the emergence of the not yet formed New Party as a factor which suggests it may loom more largely in the national political scene than had been thought previously.

The CCF-New Party victory in the traditionally Tory Peterborough constituency handed the government its only real and unexpected defeat. The Liberal wins were registered in ridings known to be Grit strongholds and the final counts surprised no one.

A simple analysis of the Peterborough situation would indicate that in this heavily industrialized area the CLC's support of the CCF paid handsome political dividends. This combined with the popular national pastime of blaming the government for all unemployment in the country brought the New Party its first success in the national field.

It is perhaps significant that in voting against the government the Peterborough constituents chose to side with a party whose principles and aims are not even published rather than support the Liberal party which, according to its campaign, could provide the answers to all the problems facing the country.

Nevertheless by-elections are notoriously poor guides as pointers to nationwide polls. The factors are frequently local in character and are not necessarily reflected when a general election is held.

Nor would the New Party be wise to assume that this one success indicates that the country is prepared to embrace it as an alternative form of government.

Disqualification for Life

A MOTORIST convicted in Victoria on Monday for his fourth offence of impaired driving in three years, and also for his second offence of driving while disqualified, was sentenced to a total of seven months' jail and prohibited from driving anywhere in Canada for a period of three years.

As there were no other aggravating circumstances at the time of arrest, the prison sentence may be considered as adequate—though in Ontario the other day a motorist convicted for the fourth time of impaired driving was sent to jail for a year.

The question is whether or not a three-year suspension of driving privileges is sufficient safeguard. To a great many safety authorities this will appear as the type of case demanding suspension for life, as is done in particularly bad cases in the United Kingdom and other countries.

The courts in Canada have established it as a principle that driving is a privilege rather than a right; and it may be said with justification that any person who so abuses that privilege forfeits all claim to it for all time.

A Life Rich in Service

THE Victoria scene lost a venerable and notable figure this week when Dr. E. C. Hart, its well-known coroner, died at the grand old age of 90 years. He belongs in the historical annals of the province.

If devoted public service is the criterion of a man's worth—and over so long a span it must be—then Dr. Hart lived a full life well and truly spent. The Hippocratic oath can have had few more faithful observers.

A continuing practitioner until the end, he enjoyed the distinction of having the longest record as a physician in the medical roll of B.C. Equally arresting was his term of office as coroner, covering a period of 62 years, which must be a record for public office of any kind anywhere. These honors are a tribute to the vigor and mental aptitudes which served him so well all his life.

Dr. Hart came here as a young man in the horse-and-buggy days of 1897, when a doctor's duty took him far and wide in circumstances primitive compared to the demands on the profession today. Even then he showed the enterprise later to mark his career and sustain him through the changing scene; he was an early motorist and indeed is remembered by old-timers as a "hot-rodder" of his day, albeit 50 years ago the pace was anything but hot contrasted with the results of speeding reflected in many of the inquests over which he presided. It was his awareness of the changing habits of society which enabled him to fill his office with understanding and knowledge.

Dr. Hart ruled his coroner's court with a strict hand, but he was noted for the justice of his dispensation and a sympathetic approach to those in difficulties. He adorned his bench with wit and the fruits of a mind rich in experience, and for him the long years were an opportunity to serve his patients and his community with undeviating loyalty. The capital city can mark his passing with gratitude for so fine and rich a life of service.

Interpreting the News

In Its Seventh Year

By ALAN HARVEY, Canadian Press Staff Writer

A FEW years ago French officials used to say cheerfully that the war in Algeria had reached its final quarter of an hour.

Now the war is entering its seventh bitter year, and further remarks about "le dernier quart d'heure" would meet with a sad shrug of the shoulders. In the long struggle between Arab and Frenchman, animosities seem sharper than ever.

Yet there is a prospect that, finally, there may be a good reason for predicting an early end to hostilities. Every passing day provides fresh evidence that the people of metropolitan France are fed up with a war that many consider unjust, that is causing a crisis of conscience among youth, that is regarded as blocking the future of France.

Another factor that may force French President de Gaulle to "do something" as students, trade unions, professors and intellectuals have long requested, is the prospect of a long and Chinese intervention on the side of the Moslem rebels.

Unconfirmed reports suggest that Chinese technicians are already on their way to Tunisia, next door to Algeria.

Meanwhile, one of the puzzling aspects in the situation is de Gaulle's own attitude. Within France, support for his policy of an "Algerian Algeria" comes mainly from the left wing.

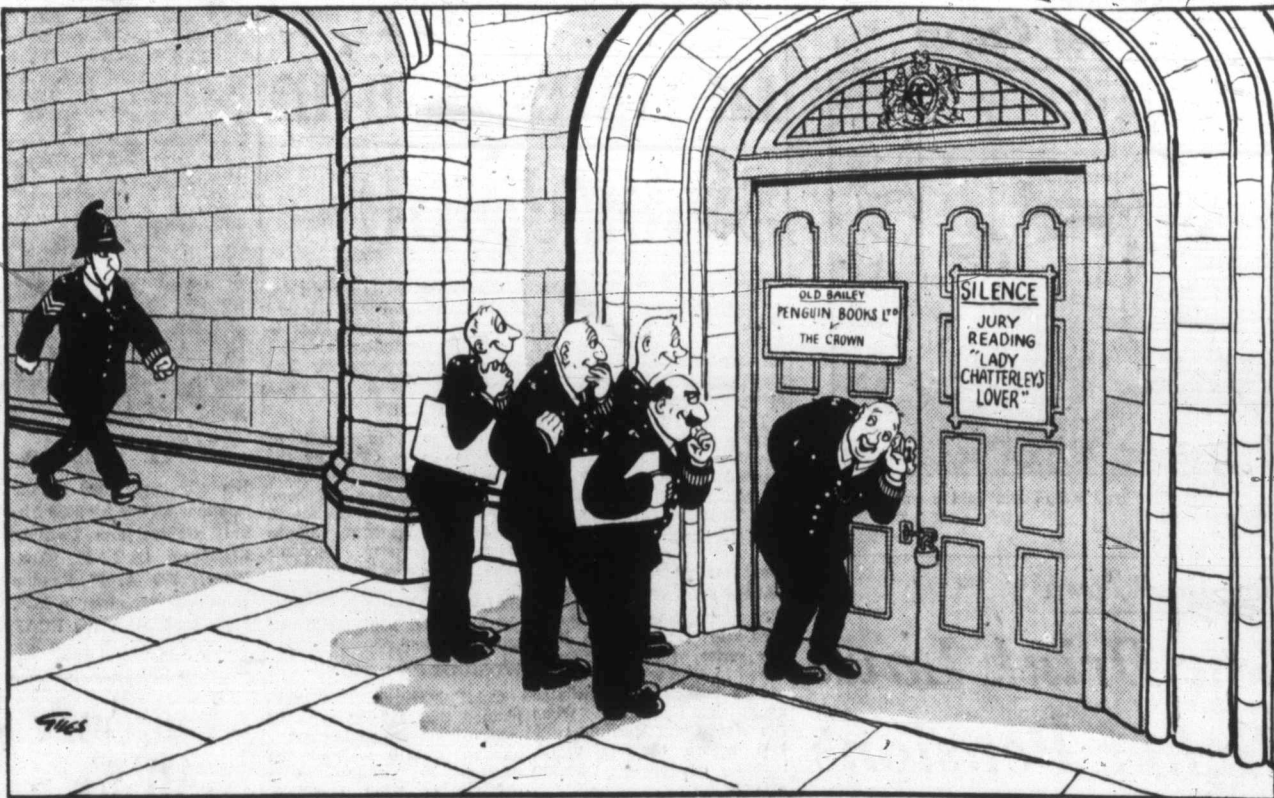

Opposition is confined to a small group of extreme right-wing politicians, including Georges Bidault, Pierre Poujade and Gen. Salan, a military leader who ironically once was regarded by the Algerian extremists as the only obstacle to their policy of a French Algeria.

But strangely, de Gaulle seems to shun the support of the left, muzzling its newspapers and forbidding protest marches, while allowing considerable leeway to his opponents on the right.

In the end the extent of Russian and Chinese intervention may be the decisive factor. For years, apologists for the war in Algeria have been saying that it is after all not so much a war against a few thousand rebels as a "crusade" to save the Western world from international Communism.

If Russia and China move into Algeria in strength, the idea of the "crusade" may finally have some justification in fact.

If Mother Admitted, Undesirables Follow

OTTAWA (CP) — Making motherhood a defence against deportation could open Canada's immigration doors to prostitutes, homosexuals and persons suspected of treason and espionage, the Supreme Court of Canada was told Tuesday.

Statement was made by D. S. Maxwell of the federal justice department in an appeal to determine if the immigration department can deport the mother of a Canadian citizen.

MOTHER'S APPEAL

The case involves an appeal by Mrs. Yuet Sun Louie, 29, daughter of an Ottawa food merchant, against an Ontario Appeal Court ruling upholding an immigration department order for her deportation to Hong Kong.

Mrs. Louie, leaving her husband and two sons in Hong Kong, entered Canada on a non-immigrant visa in December, 1957, to visit her father. She gave birth to a son here the following August and the child automatically became a Canadian citizen.

BID REJECTED

A citizen of Communist China who escaped to Hong Kong, Mrs. Louie then sought to have herself declared a legally-landed immigrant but her application was rejected. The deportation order does not apply to her son.

Mr. Maxwell said Mrs. Louie is one of a class of persons not permitted to enter Canada as immigrants. The fact that she gave birth to a child in Canada did not change her status.

UNDESIRABLES

If by giving birth to a child she became entitled to enter as an immigrant, this would permit any female to avoid deportation by having a baby in this country. This would enable such undesirables as prostitutes, homosexuals and persons suspected of espionage or high treason to do the same.

G. A. MacKay, counsel for Mrs. Louie, said Mr. Maxwell had given the impression the country would be "deluged with prostitutes and procurers." This was a "ridiculous statement" to make because the woman "would still have to be a proper mother."

Mrs. Louie, he said, is being deported simply because she is Chinese. The Immigration Act was designed to keep out as many Chinese as possible.

The son, he said, has the right to live in Canada. He also has the right to the love and care of his mother, at least during his tender years. The mother was only asking to remain only until her son reached an age when he could care for himself.

Moves Up

Former medical health officer for Victoria and for Saanich health departments, Dr. Joseph L. Gayton has been appointed medical health officer for Vancouver. He left Victoria to become assistant medical health officer in 1954.

1960 Derby Tickets

Fines Range to $1,000 In Fake Lottery Case

CALGARY (CP) — Five men were fined amounts ranging from $400 to $1,000 each in magistrate's court Tuesday when they pleaded guilty to a sweepstake scheme involving a potential $250,000 in fake lottery tickets.

Testimony before Magistrate M. H. Staples disclosed, however, that only 35 tickets at a "value" of $1 each were sold before police made the first of several arrests to break the operation.

George M. Truax and James D. Weightman, both of Calgary, were described by L. A. Justason, agent for the attorney-general, as prime movers in the scheme. Each was fined $1,000 or one year. William A. Vazzari and George D. Arsene, both of Lethbridge, Alta., were each fined $500 or six months. A fifth man, Lawrence Key of Calgary, was fined $400 or six months.

The court was told Key had failed to keep up storage payments on a trunk containing the bulk of the tickets. The trunk had been auctioned when the storage charges were not paid and the purchaser told police of the contents.

Varzari and Arsene were arrested in June, 1959, and charged with possession of lottery tickets. The investigation spread to Calgary when the men told RCMP they had obtained the tickets here.

The tickets were on the 1960 Kentucky Derby.

Const. Sheppard said a number of tickets were distributed to sellers who made deposits for them, but the scheme fell apart after the Regina arrests.

There was no indication that charges might be laid against two printers in southern Alberta that Const. Sheppard said had been approached to prepare tickets.

Sharks Close Beach

MIAMI (UPI)—About 20 black-tip sharks, keeping bathers from Crandon Park for the sixth straight day yesterday, carefully avoided nets and baited hooks and chose their own diet of mullet.

The sharks, five to seven feet long and 100 pounds each, have been swimming about 200 yards off shore from the big county-operated park. Park officials continued to ban swimming.

About 100 hooks were baited after efforts to corral the sharks with a 1,200-foot net failed.

Appeal Made For Tots

Chairman of the fund to provide for the welfare of seven children of two brothers killed on Sooke Road, Oct. 21 last night called on people to get behind the campaign.

More than $600 has been collected for the children of Jack Leroy Cameron and Tom Cameron who died when crushed between a heavy truck and a car.

Donations will be received at the Colwood branch of the Bank of Commerce, Colwood firehall, Glen Lake Hardware and Dickenson and Dunn in Victoria.

The fund was opened by the Colwood volunteer fire brigade. Both men were members.

Two Drivers In Hospital

A two-car collision at West Saanich and Pipe Line Roads about 4 p.m. yesterday sent the drivers to hospital.

Mrs. Ethel Allan Vincent, 4786 Spring Road, was treated for minor head and leg injuries and is in good condition at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Edwin James, 18, of Duncan is in satisfactory condition at Royal Jubilee Hospital after being treated for minor head injuries.

Blaze of Talent Ends Opera Visit

By BERT BINNY

An all too brief visit to Victoria by the Wagner Opera Company of New York concluded last night at the Royal with near stellar performances of "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "I Pagliacci."

A full house was thoroughly delighted by outstanding individual performances as well as by excellent choral work and staging.

Rosalie Maresca, possessor of a powerful, thrilling yet beautifully controlled voice, made a completely convincing "Santuzza" in "Cavalleria" with Rudolf Petrak's "Turiddu" equally impressive.

Olivia Bonelli's "Nedda" and Russell Christopher's "Silvio" highlighted "Pagliacci" along with a superb performance as "Beppe" by Marshall Stone.

However, the contribution of every performer last night was significant in securing a really outstanding success for the company as a whole.

Third Man Admits Army Polisher Theft

Third man charged jointly in Esquimalt police court with theft of a $100 floor polisher from the men's canteen at Work Point Barracks appeared before Magistrate William Oster yesterday.

Kenneth Raymond Van Horne, no fixed address, pleaded guilty and was remanded to Monday morning for a probation report and sentence. John Alexander Winsell, Sooke, and George Leslie Wildman, Work Point, entered similar pleas Monday and were remanded.

Peter Larsen, 1008 1/2 Hillside, pleaded guilty in Saanich court to theft last June 21 of a $15 revolver and was remanded to Thursday for probation report and sentence.

Court was told Larsen had taken the revolver while working for a transfer company and moving Dean F. Smith from a house on Broadway to 1275 Tattersall.

Vancouver man Wallace Stevenson pleaded guilty to a charge of public mischief by making a false report to police concerning an attempted suicide. He was given suspended sentence, under bond of $250 for six months.

In city court, David Yardley, no fixed address, pleaded guilty to taking a car without consent of the owner and was remanded to Nov. 7 for probation report and sentence.

Police said the car was taken Monday from Victoria High School parking lot and recovered after a chase in the Gorge district. Yardley and a juvenile were captured soon afterward.

Bernard Sinclair, 908 Cowichan, was fined $20 when he pleaded guilty to being a minor in possession of liquor—a case of beer.

the Rambler American

RAMBLER AMERICAN CUSTOM 4 DOOR SEDAN

TAKE A GOOD LOOK at this one because its design is here to stay—without annual styling changes. This policy is part of Rambler's new formula for the times we live in. It means that 12 months from now your 1961 American will not be obsolete—depreciation costs will be drastically cut.

It also means that future improvements will not be superficial but genuine advancements that have been thoroughly tested and proven to be of practical use to you, the driver. As an example of this kind of improvement, the 1961 Rambler offers the world's first Ceramic-Armoured Muffler and Tailpipe that are guaranteed for the life of the car during original ownership. And this is only 1 of 46 practical improvements that make the '61 Rambler American an adventure in driving pleasure at realistic transportation price—backed up by 12,000 mile or 12 month warranty. In establishing this up to date design, trunk space has been increased by 50%, there is more glass area, and without increasing wheelbase the American is more compact, making driving in heavy traffic, parking and turning easier than ever before. All these accomplishments are a direct result of Rambler's 11 years experience in compact car design.

In the economy department, Rambler American remains unbeaten. This king of economy runs not only tempts you with surprising low initial cost but keeps its value better than any other North American car.

Try this new formula for modern driving soon. See your local Rambler dealer and test-drive the Rambler American model of your choice.

Favors Turn From Golds To Blue Chips

TORONTO (CP) — Industrials scored their best win in three weeks in a stock market that advanced across the board. Banks and steel provided the backbone of blue-chip trading, while papers and utilities were mixed.

Among steels, Page-Hersey, Algoma, Atlas and Toronto Iron Works A all improved.

Golds were losing their novelty appeal, with most of the senior producers moving in the small fractions.

Base metals were strong behind Hudson Bay and International Nickel.

Canadian Devonian paced the increase among Western oils.

Rise in Texaco

MONTREAL (CP) — The Montreal and Canadian Stock Exchange closed higher. Trading was light.

Texaco at 51½ rose 1½ to lead winners. Price Bros. at 38½ added 1½.

Losers were led by Fraser River Paper at 40½, down ½.

In mines, Hudson Bay added one point, at 46. International Nickel at 50½, Aluminia at 29½ and Dome at 26.

N.Y. Advances

NEW YORK (AP) — Industrial shares led a sharp stock rally. Trading was fairly quiet.

A surprise dividend boost by Boeing spurred airfracts.

Steels, chemicals, rubbers, airlines, building materials and drug advanced. All motors except Chrysler, off ½, rose moderately.

International Business Machines rose 9½, Texas Instruments 2 and Polaroid 5½. Further attention was focused on Polaroid by published news that it is studying the possibility of turning out a smaller version of its "picture-in-a-minute" camera.

London Stock Prices

LONDON (Reuters) — London stock markets were quiet and generally irregular.

Glit-gled securities lacked interest and took widespread losses. Foreign bonds and rails were quiet while dollar stocks were narrowly irregular.

Steel and oil shares were firm. Gold shares fluctuated but were mainly higher on balance. Coppers opened firm but later reduced gains.

Grain Market

WINNIPEG (CP) — Quiet export business and dull trade characterized proceedings. Closing out of October contract was a factor.

A small disposal of flax to Japan was the only export trade mentioned.

Oats and barley trade was slow with domestic shippers supplying the most demand. Prices were steady.

The rye market was firm on occasions reflecting light advance made in the Chicago trade.

Wheat was firm, with a small advance in the Chicago trade.

Barley was firm, with a small advance in the Chicago trade.

Flax was firm, with a small advance in the Chicago trade.

Grain futures market held a firm to strong range on the board of trade with some wheat contracts hitting season highs for the fifth consecutive day.

Soybeans also reached their season peaks in spots.

Transactions were fairly active and gains of nearly all grains were in major fractions or more at times on several deliveries.

Glutted securities lacked interest and took widespread losses. Foreign bonds and rails were quiet while dollar stocks were narrowly irregular.

Steel and oil shares were firm. Gold shares fluctuated but were mainly higher on balance. Coppers opened firm but later reduced gains.

Financial Times index 321.5, up 0.3.

CASTLEGAR, B.C. (CP)—Magistrate Parker Williams Tuesday found Leonard Gallo guilty of criminal negligence in connection with the death near here in June of Janice Nixon in a car accident which followed a high school graduation party.

The youth was fined $125. The magistrate said he felt Gallo had been driving at excessive speed but because there were no moral issues, such as drinking, involved, and because the boy and his family were well thought of in the district, he had decided to impose a fine.

UN Defeats Cuban Call

UNITED NATIONS (CP)—The UN General Assembly rode down Cuban Soviet demands Tuesday night for urgent assembly debate on their charges that the U.S. is planning an invasion of Cuba. The assembly voted 45-29, with 18 abstentions, against a Cuban amendment opposing debate of the issue in the political committee.

Blast Kills Man During Surgery

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP)—An operating room mishap that a doctor said occurs possibly once a year in the U.S. and Canada killed a Lewiston businessman Tuesday.

Reuben J. Lee, 60, died at St. Joseph's Hospital here about an hour after a machine used to administer anaesthetic exploded while he was undergoing abdominal surgery.

The doctor said death resulted from lung damage caused by the explosion and heart condition of the patient.

It was the first such accident at the hospital, officials said. Cause of the blast wasn't known, but hospital authorities said it may have been caused by static electricity.

There was no apparent injury to the seven-member surgical team, although the doctor said there was a possibility some ear damage to the surgical staff could develop.

The concussion was strong enough to be felt in the corridor outside the operating room.

Free Trade Only Hope For Canada

REGINA (CP)—Premier T. C. Douglas of Saskatchewan said Tuesday the ultimate solution to Canada's trading imbalance lies in setting up an Atlantic free-trading area.

He told the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool's convention Canada should take the lead in bringing Britain and Western Europe together with North America into the trade area.

He said the pact might take five to 10 years or longer to accomplish but until it is set up Canada's adverse trading balance will continue.

Canada, Six Others Blast U.S. Curbs

GENEVA (Reuters)—The U.S. came under fire here Tuesday for maintaining stiff protection for its agriculture.

Seven agricultural countries, including Canada, criticized U.S. import restrictions at a closed session of the contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade who began a three-week conference.

U.S. delegate Charles Adair presented a report on import restrictions maintained by the U.S. during the last year.

Adair said his government found it necessary to continue restrictions on the import of wheat and wheat products, cotton and cotton waste, rye and rye flour, flaxseed including linseed oil, peanuts and peanut oil, tung nuts and tung oil, and dairy products.

Delegates from Canada, New Zealand, Australia, Rhodesia, Denmark, The Netherlands and Uruguay then voiced disappointment over the report.

Do your communications rate a second look?

The equipment this receptionist is using rates close inspection. It's the latest type of PABX. (Translation: Private Automatic Branch Exchange.) And it does a whole lot more than just sit there and look handsome. It provides the most efficient telephone service available. Handles up to 90 inside phones; answers, holds and transfers calls by pushbuttons.

And compact! This office switchboard takes less desk space than a typewriter. Its mechanics are stored away from your reception area. Inter-office and incoming calls are taken on a matching desk phone. Or on a headset if you prefer.

This automatic switchboard gives your receptionist more hours free to type, file, answer correspondence. So easy to use, anyone can pinch-hit for her lunch hours and coffee breaks. It's like hiring help without hiring people.

And the PABX costs less than people. It's rented. You have no capital expenditure, depreciation or maintenance. A moderate monthly rental includes regular service calls from B.C. Telephone.

Modern communications are important to every business. They save you time, save you money, help you sell. From a telephone to a Teletype... all equipment has a lifetime guarantee. Back to the Salt Mines

ROME (AP)—Archie Moore Tuesday chucked off his first defeat in four years and said, "Quit the ring? Man, I've just begun fighting!"

The ageless Archie, crowding 44 or 50, but still recognized in most parts of the world as the light-heavyweight champion, said:

"I'm going back to the salt mines... (that's what he calls his ranch near San Diego, Calif.) and I'm going to lock the doors, and I'm going back into training all over again."

"And when I come out," he said confidently, "I'll be a brand new fighter — young enough and in shape enough to beat any of them."

Moore was fat and slow at 190½ pounds when he lost an unanimous decision Saturday night in a 10-round non-title fight with Italy's relatively unknown light-heavyweight champion Giulio Rinaldi. The light-heavy limit is 175 pounds. It was his first defeat since he was knocked out by Floyd Patterson in their heavyweight title fight Nov. 30, 1956.

Archie promised Rinaldi a chance at the world title — maybe next summer.

"Rinaldi's young and strong, and has plenty of courage," said Archie. "But I'm a distance fighter. He won't be able to stay with me for 15 rounds."

Rookie Bert Fizzell Scores Classy Goal For Cougar Victory

By JIM TANG

Bert Fizzell, a big rookie who is more and more looking like a good rookie, pushed Victoria Cougars into a second-place tie in the Western Hockey League last night with a sensational overtime goal at Memorial Arena which did in Calgary Stampede, 4-3.

It climaxed a spectacular finish for a game which was quite undistinguished through the first two periods as neither club could get anything

But Fizzell got the puck away and while almost everyone was waiting to see if referee Willie Papp, a benevolent soul indeed last night, was going to call a penalty, it came out to Don Wilson. The other Victoria rookie promptly stashed it behind Dechene.

From there it was a succession of all-out Calgary attacks, and the Cougars appeared to have it won when they stood off Stamps during a late penalty to Pat Ginnell. But Sid Finney carried into the Victoria zone, the Stamps rushed Dechene off the ice for a sixth attacker, got even almost before Dechene could find a seat as Wally Hergesheimer flipped one high from a scramble.

Jim Hay, with a hot slap which Dechene gloved but dropped, and Pat Ginnell, with a passout which deflected off a prone Dechene, got the other Victoria goals.

Calgary goal: Dechene; defence, Hucul, Burega, McAvoy, Van Impe; forwards, Hergesheimer, Vejravala, Johnson, Brown, Leopold, Jankowski, Finney, Bristow.

Victoria: goal, Pelletier; defence, McLeod, Currie, Hay, North; forwards, Johnson, Chortey, Macauley, Anderson, Fizzell, Wilson, Goyer, Ginnell, Ford. Referee: Willie Papp. Linesmen: John Smith, Neil Padgett.

Bill Saunders New Cougar

Playing strength of the Victoria Cougars was increased to 16 yesterday morning when they were informed by Toronto Maple Leafs that forward Bill Saunders was en route, by car, from Rochester.

Saunders, who will be 23 years old later this month, is the second of two players the Cougars were to get from Toronto in exchange for a sponsorship right for one year. The first was Bill Johnson, veteran centre who has proven a valuable addition.

Coach George Agar of the Cougars said that both the players sent by Toronto are to become the property of the Victoria club. He also stated that both had to be acceptable, indicating that the deal is not actually complete until the Cougars decide to keep Saunders.

This is Saunders' sophomore year in professional hockey. A former star with the junior Winnipeg Monarchs, he turned pro with Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League last season.

He had a fine rookie season. Although confined in many games to spot duty on a club made up almost exclusively of veterans, Saunders scored 24 goals and was credited with 28 assists. He is five feet, nine inches tall and his listed weight is 165 pounds.

Saunders' acquisition leaves the Cougars with 11 forwards, at least one more than they intend to keep, but Agar said that he is still trying to make additions that will help. A tentative deal for another defenceman is still brewing and it may be completed within a few days.

Walden Reports For Army Tests

B.C. Lions, whose efforts to make progress in the Western Interprovincial Football Union have been mostly slowed by trouble in getting a stand-out quarterback, may have lost both of their import signal-callers.

Randy Duncan, the former University of Iowa All-American who turned in his best game last Saturday, indicated that he wouldn't be back next season although stating that

Junior Hockey Team Formed in Victoria

British Columbia Amateur Hockey Association's recent decision to once more enter the often-frustrating Memorial Cup junior hockey playdowns has had a positive reaction in Victoria.

Doug Bambridge has called for an organizational practice at Memorial Arena tonight from 5:30 to 7 for all boys 20 years and under, interested in forming one or more teams.

Play would likely be on a local level for most of the winter and a select club would play off against other coast teams from Vancouver, New Westminster and Nanaimo in the first leg of B.C. playoffs.

he was not necessarily through with playing football.

This had been more or less expected but yesterday came a report that Jim Walden, University of Wyoming rookie who showed some promise as Duncan's replacement this season, had received his classification call from the U.S. army.

Chances are good, however, that Walden will be with the Lions next year. He has six months of schooling remaining and will be safe from call until next June. By then, the Waldens are expecting to be parents.

If Walden gets his call anyway, he can probably serve his hitch in segments — a six-month stretch followed by 12 years of reserve duty, which calls for only a few weeks of his time each year.

Should the Lions lose Walden as well as Duncan, they would be left with Canadian Earl Keeley and Gary Dunn, an import halfback who was signed this year for next year because the Lions liked his versatility. Dunn has been working out with the Lions all season and was being groomed as a possible quarterback.

On top of that the Lions have Bob Schloredt on their negotiation list and have high hopes of persuading the University of Washington ace to play his football in Canada.

Edmonton Eskimos Betting Choice As Western Grid Semis Open

EDMONTON — Calgary Stampede, who came last in the final month to nail down a Western Interprovincial Football Union playoff berth — and just made it over B.C. Lions — are betting underdogs for the first game of the two-game total-points semi-final against Edmonton Eskimos that opens here tonight.

Eskimos are three-point favorites for the first game and eight points on the series, Edmonton, which finished second, had a hard time containing Calgary for the last part of the season. Stampede won handily the last two times the teams met.

The interest generated in the series, first time the two Alberta teams have met in playoffs since 1952, has been reflected in ticket sales for the two games. More than 20,000 are expected tonight in Clarke Stadium in Edmonton and about the same number in Calgary for Saturday afternoon's second game.

In Calgary, partisanship has been whipped to a fever pitch. Not since 1957 have Stampede made it into the league playoffs, and not in more years than that has a team moved from so far down in league standings to earn its berth.

It started when Winnipeg defeated the Stampede 50-7 in Winnipeg Aug. 18, bringing about the resignation of Calgary coach Otis Douglas.

The Stamp directors came up with Steve Owen, who was scouting for the Toronto Argonauts of the Big Four after 30 years of football experience. The revolution didn't come about all at once, but as the season drew to a close, Calgary and the British Columbia Lions were battling for third place in the league.

Edmonton coach Eagle Keys said tackle Roger Nelson has stopped limping and line-backer Oscar Kruger has recovered completely from severe bone bruises.

"We're about as ready as we'll ever be," he added. It is the first meeting of the teams in the playoffs since the 1952 semi when Stampede took a 19-point lead in the first game and then lost the second by a wider margin.

KEN CARPENTER

Carpenter Quits

Rider Surplus Almost Gone

REGINA (CP)—The executive of the Saskatchewan Roughriders accepted the resignation of head coach Ken Carpenter, recommended that R. A. Kramer take over as president of the Western Conference Football Club, and decided to seek increased financial assistance from the league at a meeting held here on Tuesday night.

Carpenter, who had signed a one-year contract last December, tendered his resignation to club president Morris Wessel and it was accepted at the general meeting of the executive, effective immediately.

A six-year Rider veteran as a halfback and end and a former Cleveland Browns' star, Carpenter had intimated three weeks ago that he wouldn't be back at the helm of the club next year. It is believed that he will accept an assistant coaching position with the Denver Broncos of the American Football League whose head coach is Frank Filchock, head man of the Riders for five years until he was succeeded by George Terlep in 1958.

Mrs. Lawson Captures Ladies' Golf Trophies

Mrs. Ken Lawson took home the silverware while Mrs. J. Tribe and Mrs. D. Naysmith took home the turkeys in the final round of the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union 15-and-under handicap competition recently at Gorge Vale.

Mrs. Lawson won silver bowls for low gross and low net honors after a series of six tests.

Mrs. Tribe was the low net winner in the final round, shortened to nine holes because of rain, while Mrs. H. G. Means was runner-up.

Mrs. Naysmith was the low gross winner with 43.

Get In a Few Licks

By M. V. CHESNUT, FRHS

Now that their display is over, the leaf-losing climbing vines on the house wall are beginning to look rather sorry for themselves. I like to get a few licks on them at this stage in their growth, pruning where necessary and tying them in to cover thinly furnished areas on the wall.

Climbing and ramblers across the porch are probably the most common house adornment and have made astonishing growth this year. The more vigorous kinds such as Dorothy Perkins and Excelsa have pushed up enough new shoots from the base so that all the old flowered wood can be cut out completely. Just like raspberries, and the new young shoots tied in. Some of the other popular sorts like Albertine, Emily Grey and Paul's Scarlet push out their new shoots, not from the base but from various points along the length of the old canes. These are pruned more lightly, cutting back the old canes to just above a vigorous young side shoot.

Clematis is a tricky subject to prune, as each kind requires a different treatment and a different time of pruning. No great harm can come from letting the vine just go its own way without any pruning, however, and unless you know the name of your Clematis and just how it should be pruned, your best bet is to leave it alone, simply tying in any long loose shoots.

Honeysuckle, the summer and winter-flowering jasmine, and wall-trained forsythia are all trouble-free plants that need very little attention apart from tying in new growth to its supports. Forsythia tends to become overcrowded in time, but this is easily controlled simply by helping yourself freely to lots of bare shoots in February for forcing into bloom in the house.

A few of our vines are not reliably hardy here and need a bit of protection over the roots in severe weather. Solanum crispum, the Flowering Potato Vine, is one of these, along with the trumpet-flowered Tecoma. These vines should really have a sunny south-facing wall, with a covering of dry leaves or bracken over the roots in winter. The Passion Flower is an unpredictable critter, flourishing in a bleak, windswept location, yet often expiring miserably in a sheltered spot. With this subject, it is safest to presume that yours may be a tender strain and pamper it as with Tecoma. The afternoons when you went blackberrying along the dusty hedgerows of a country road are not much more than memories today. Paving and blacktop has removed most of the dust and chemical vegetation-killers have taken out most of the blackberries.

If you are partial to this fruit, you had better plant up some canes of your own. The common belief that wild fruit has a better flavor than the cultivated was never anything more than a cherished fable; the cultivated kinds have always been better.

Blackberries are quite easy to grow and just about any kind of soil can be made suitable provided it is not badly waterlogged. They need good drainage and plenty of sunshine, but they must have plenty of moisture at fruiting time to swell the berries. Like raspberries, they are hungry feeders and appreciate a heavy mulch of old manure over their shallow roots.

Planting can be done either in spring or in the fall—in fact, they could be put in at any time during the winter when there is not actually frost in the soil. But I think there is some advantage in getting them in early this month, while the soil is warm.

Hollywood Today

Tab's Tab $10,000 for Trial

HOLLYWOOD (NANA)—Tab Hunter has added up the tab for the lawyers etc., in his recent courtroom trial, and it's close to $10,000. And Tab is still paying off the $200,000 to Warners—their price for his freedom. The studios sometimes make more money from a star when he leaves than when he stays. I remember Burt Lancaster had to buy his way to free-lancing from Hal Wallis. And Ernie Borgnine had to pay a fortune to Lancaster for his freedom. No wonder some of these movie people never get out of the red!

Clark Gable is so solicitous of expecting wife Kay that he won't even let her boil a pan of water. Not that the glamorous Kay was ever in the habit of doing this kitchen chore.

Gary Cooper writes that he will be back from England in time for the local Jan. 8 roasting at the Friars. All the stars will turn out to do Gary homage.

Jerry Wald informs me that "Return to Peyton Place" sold more than 5,000,000 paper backs.

Dana Wynter will be the prettiest producer hereabouts. She bought the French best-seller "Psyche 59" for her own company with husband Greg Bautzer. Try to get Greg out on the town these days and nights. No sir. He's more interested in staying home and playing with very small son Mark!

Paging Jackie or Jacqui Chan: Ross Hunter, producer of "The Flower Drum Song," contacted your agents. Object: To offer you a role in the movie. Reply to date—silence... Jackie, or Jacqui—the latter is how she is billed in the movie version of "The World of Suzie Kwan"—is currently planning a night-club appearance in London and hoping to lose her label, "former friend of Antony Armstrong-Jones." She's very good in "Suzie." So is Suzie, Nancy Kwan.

Robert Stack, who was rich to start with, will never have time to count the money he makes from his 25 per cent of the highly successful TV series, "The Untouchables," which owes a lot to Walter Winchell's exciting method of narration.

Assassins Failed

Decade Ago

Bullets for the President

By LOUIS CASSELS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—It was 2:15 p.m. EST, Nov. 1, 1950.

President Harry S. Truman was taking a nap in an upstairs room of Blair House, the presidential guest house on Pennsylvania Avenue, which served as his residence while the White House was being renovated.

Outside the historic old mansion, four uniformed White House policemen and a secret service agent stood guard.

Crowds of government workers returning from lunch drifted along the sun-bathed sidewalk. There was no reason for the guards to notice the two dark-eyed Puerto Ricans who approached Blair House.

One of them wore a light blue suit with a faint pin-stripe. He was Oscar Collazo, 36, a metal polisher by trade. He had lived for the past 25 years in New York's Bronx, but he still thought of himself as a Puerto Rican, and he was a fanatical supporter of the tiny Island party seeking independence for the island which was then a U.S. territory.

His companion wore a light-grey, chalk-striped suit. He was Grisello Torresola, 30, also of the Bronx, and also a Puerto Rican nationalist.

The two men had other things in common: Both carried pistols in their pockets. And both were determined to kill the president of the United States.

They approached Blair House from the east. Collazo walked past a wooden guard booth in which secret service agent Floyd Boring and Pvt. Joseph Davidson of the White House police were chatting. He turned toward the steps of Blair House. At the top of the steps, with his back momentarily turned to the sidewalk, stood Pvt. Donald Birdzell, 42.

Collazo drew his pistol and began firing at Birdzell. Birdzell was hit in both legs. Officer Birdzell did an heroic thing. Instead of shooting back or seeking cover, he staggered into Pennsylvania Avenue in order to draw fire away from Blair House. When he had gone as far as he could, he dropped to his knees and began shooting at Collazo. Boring and Davidson also opened fire. Collazo started up the steps, was struck by a bullet and fell to the pavement, his arm outstretched.

Torresola meanwhile began shooting into the guard booth on the other side of Blair House. Privates Leslie Coffelt, 41, and Joseph Downs, 44, were hit, but both managed to draw their guns and returned the fire.

When the firing stopped, a few seconds later, both Coffelt and Downs lay on the ground, gravely wounded. Torresola was sprawled across a boxwood hedge, dead from a bullet in the brain.

In the midst of the shooting, President Truman ran to the window in his underwear, and stuck his head out to see what was going on.

"Get back!" a guard roared, and Truman hastily complied. The three wounded guards and the surviving assassin, Collazo, were taken in ambulances to a hospital. Coffelt was unconscious with bullet wounds in the chest and back. Despite emergency surgery, he died in four hours.

Doctors were able to save the lives of Pvt. Downs, who was in critical condition with two bullets in his chest, and Pvt. Birdzell, who had leg wounds. With the impartiality of medical men, they removed a bullet from Collazo's chest and made sure he would live to stand trial for his deed.

Collazo was charged with the murder of Coffelt. The court appointed distinguished lawyers to defend him without cost. He was found guilty and sentenced to death, but President Truman, whom Collazo wanted to kill, commuted the sentence to life imprisonment.

Collazo today is at Leavenworth penitentiary in Kansas. He will not be eligible to apply for parole until March 5, 1966.

Where are the other survivors of that tragic afternoon 10 years ago?

Harry S. Truman is living in his home town of Independence, Mo., no longer a target for assassins.

Downs is working for the U.S. Customs Bureau at Miami.

Birdzell and Davidson retired from the White House police force a few weeks ago and are living in the Washington area on their pensions.

Floyd Boring is still a secret service agent, still on the White House detail, standing guard over the life of the president of the United States.

It's Only Superstition

But Who's Listening?

Whisky Wishful as Fever-Flusher

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—It may be wishful thinking, but 50 per cent of all Americans believe that whisky will "kill" a fever.

This is the claim of Dr. H. Frederick Kilander, professor of education at New York University. He made a study of medical superstitions in this country and reported on it to the American Public Health Association.

Kilander numbered college students among those holding overly-optimistic theories on the medicinal benefits of whisky.

Kilander said college students hold other odd beliefs; for instance, one in three is convinced a prospective mother can make her unborn child more musically inclined simply by listening to good music.

After a certain point education makes little difference regarding superstition, Kilander said. College graduates and those finishing only secondary school are likely to have the same beliefs.

Studies made since 1936 show there has been a slight, but steady improvement in health information held by college students.

However, Kilander said, "individuals still hold many misconceptions about nutrition, weight reducing, tuberculosis, prenatal influences, mental health and first aid procedures."

Kilander listed these other misconceptions indulged in by many Americans:

1. Fish is good brain food.

2. Infectious diseases can be inherited.

3. Water contains calories and is therefore fattening.

4. Steak can cure black eyes.

Now, fast relief from acid indigestion!

Yes, now you can enjoy freedom from acid indigestion, heartburn, and that uncomfortable distended feeling. Just reach for a roll of TUMS, eat a couple of those mild, minty tablets—get relief immediately! No after-taste with TUMS. And they're so convenient to carry in purse or pocket... ready to take unobtrusively, any time stomach upset strikes. You never need water or a glass. TUMS cost so little too.

Wave of 'Vitamania'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The president of the American Medical Association said Monday the United States is becoming "a land of hypochondriacs"—people who conjure up imaginary ailments.

"Despite the excellent health we enjoy as a nation, America is now afflicted with a new ailment—vitamania," Dr. E. Vincent Askey of Los Angeles told the Columbus Rotary Club.

"Ingenuous advertising, misleading claims and general fraudulence have helped create Americans full of vitamins."

The average American who enjoys reasonably good health gets all the vitamins and minerals he needs from a well-balanced diet.

"Virtually all" of the non-prescription or over-the-counter products sold today bring little or no health benefit," he added.

Show Business

Actress Sally Todd, who dates Troy Donahue, is used to having him recognized when they appear in public in Hollywood.

But in New York, it's something else again. Sally visited Troy on the Eastern location site for his new movie, "Parish." The waitress seemed to recognize him and Donahue was naturally pleased. Finally she asked him if he was Lance Reventlow.

Then the waitress turned to

Sally. "I know you from 77 Sunset Strip. You're Sally Todd."

As they prepared to leave, the waitress came by again. "Good luck to you, dear," she smiled. Donahue, used to public attention, involuntarily acknowledged the leavetaking. "I don't mean you," the waitress said. "I mean good luck to Sally!"

Mail Deadlines Set For Force in Egypt

OTTAWA (CP) — The UN emergency force postal unit in Egypt is preparing for a flood of Christmas mail from Canada, army headquarters said Monday. Canadians sending parcels to the Middle East must see that parcels reach Montreal by Nov. 18. Air mail must reach Montreal by Dec. 12.

Tough Miner Loses Arm To Escape Deep Cave-In

BRITANNIA, B.C. (CP) — A young doctor, equipped only with a pair of scissors, a miner's lamp and some morphine tablets, early Tuesday amputated the mangled arm of a miner trapped two miles beneath the surface.

Dr. Barrie Flather said Henry Wenzel, 44, begged him to cut off his left arm at the shoulder because otherwise he could not crawl through a narrow escape tunnel to safety.

Wenzel had been trapped in the Howe Sound Co. copper mine for six hours after a "bump" had caused a cave-in at the 4,950-foot level.

Desperate fellow workers had worked feverishly to dig a narrow tunnel through the rubble to get to him, then Dr. Flather crawled in. All Dr. Flather could offer to dull his pain was morphine tablets to suck.

"He only screamed once during the operation," the doctor said. Wenzel, flown to hospital in Vancouver, was reported in satisfactory condition. "He talked very coherently to us," said mine manager Don Pringle. "Wenzel is a very tough bird," said Dr. Flather.

Airline Pilots Blamed Whether Right or Not

MONTREAL (CP) — The Canadian Air Line Pilots Association was told Tuesday night the blame for air accidents tends to fall on pilots, whether or not they were in error.

Capt. John Gallagher, director of the association's safety committee, said public inquiries probably would be the best solution.

Two-Hour Attack

Armed Men Pepper Home

LOOMA, Alta. (CP) — RCMP Tuesday began an investigation into reports of a two-hour attack by armed men on Mr. and Mrs. W. Lange of this tiny community 20 miles southeast of Edmonton.

Police were told shots were fired at the Lange house Monday night — Halloween — from a car driven past the building. The family dog was killed in the gunfire.

Mrs. Lange said the incident began about midnight when stones and eggs were thrown against the building.

Later, a car containing possibly four men drove into the yard, one of the car doors was opened and one of the occupants shot the dog. Mrs. Lange said she and her husband were standing within two feet of the dog when it was shot.

RCMP were told the men then left but returned later to drive past the house several times, firing at the building.

Slap Vote Upheld

Aldermen Reaffirm Censure

ALBURN — Five aldermen voted Monday night to reaffirm a motion censuring Mayor Mabel Anderson after she had returned it for reconsideration and said she considered it a "libelous charge."

Two weeks ago council passed a resolution of censure against the mayor for "tampering with the minute book of this city." She returned it last week and on Monday night read a statement in which she recommended that the motion "be expunged from the minutes as an objectionable resolution."

ONE AGAINST

On presentation of the resolution Aldermen T. S. Barnett, C. M. Blair, F. A. Bishop, R. R. Foxcroft and G. A. Dunbar voted in favor. The same five voted to reaffirm the motion. Alderman Gordon S. Lundine voted against censure saying that he had not seen the statement which members of the council had alleged the mayor had written into the minute book.

ASK CLERK

He was told by Ald-Dunbar that in order to see the minute book he had only to ask the city clerk.

City solicitor R. J. Ohs was questioned by Mayor Anderson as to her right to instruct the clerk to write statements into the minutes.

NO AUTHORITY

He repeated the gist of a two-page report which he had given some time ago in which he had informed the mayor that she did not have the authority to instruct the clerk to make any insertion in the minutes unless the addition had been passed by resolution of the council.

He refused to give her an answer to the question of whether he considered the council's vote of censure a libelous charge. He suggested she obtain an independent opinion.

Lawnmower's Lament

This sad-faced animal may seem to be mourning his somewhat irregular parentage, half Mexican burro and half Shetland pony, or his role as a four-legged lawnmower, but "Tequila's" Duncan owner says the expression is misleading, he's really high-spirited and sometimes just a bit too rough. Drive Extension 'a Must'

Halfway to Goal Four Days to Go

Greater Victoria Community Chest yesterday reached the halfway mark with donations totalling $175,000 with only four days to go in the campaign.

Campaign chairman Bernard Van Aggelen said last night it appeared extension of the campaign was an "absolute must" if the $350,000 goal was to be reached.

Canvassers and other key workers will attend a special meeting at Spencerhouse today at 3:30 p.m. to make a decision on the length of the campaign.

"The way returns are coming in at present we could end up further short of our goal than in 1959," said Mr. Van Aggelen. Last year the Red Feather drive netted $295,000 of its $325,000 goal.

The somewhat gloomy picture at present, however, could change quickly, he said.

Chest canvassers were urged to make follow-up "call-backs" on prospects and officials stressed the need for full co-operation by the public.

Mr. Mulliner said a disagreement between Mr. Dukowski and Mr. Noakes was the reason given for Mr. Noakes' resignation, and he described the resignation of the other two permanent staff members as "a friendship proposition."

WHAT DO WE HAVE? One member of the commission suggested an inquiry, he said, "but as (commissioner) Bill Pinfold said, 'What have we to inquire into?'"

After Mr. Noakes resigned, two members of the city comptroller's department were put to work, part-time, on the arena's bookkeeping, and then two accountants from the arena's auditing firm.

Mr. Mulliner said the result was "a clear sheet" and the running of the office was now under control.

NO NEED Mayor Percy Scurrah last night saw no need of an inquiry.

"From the information I have at the moment," he said, "I don't think an inquiry is needed. There has been a conflict of personalities up there and it's an internal situation which I think the commission is well able to handle."

Carpenters Interested In Big Shift

Victoria carpenters, hard-hit by unemployment, are showing interest in a New Zealand firm's attempts to recruit tradesmen in this area.

The company is offering a minimum of two years' full-time employment at prevailing New Zealand rates. Applicants have to pay their own passage to New Zealand.

"About eight men are actually listed for interviews," a spokesman for the National Employment Service said last night.

James Moffatt, business agent for the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, said last night unemployment among carpenters in this area is higher than it has been since the depression years of the 1930s.

"We had 150 carpenters out last summer," he said, "and I have no doubt there are 200 out of work now."

LARRY SHAW ... flew through air

To Avoid Tie-Up

Boy Hit by Car Crawls to Curb

An 11-year-old North Ward School student, hit by a car at the Douglas-Kings intersection yesterday crawled painfully to the side of the road after the mishap because he didn't want to hold up traffic.

Larry Shaw, 568 Bay Street, was treated for facial lacerations and cuts and is in fairly good condition at the Royal Jubilee Hospital. He was on his way home from school. Police said the car was driven by Richard F. Mathews of Rocky Point Road.

Larry's seven-year-old sister saw the accident and ran home to tell her mother. Mrs. Bernice Shaw arrived on the scene just as her son was being placed in the ambulance.

Later in hospital he told her he had crawled to the edge of the street so as not to block traffic.

Malcolm Sutherland, 2601 Douglas, saw the accident from his store. "I saw him fly through the air," he said. "I called the ambulance."

The school safety patrol left the crosswalk area only minutes before the accident occurred at 3:14 p.m.

Police said the car was driven by Richard F. Mathews of Rocky Point Road.

Oak Bay Plea Ignored

the "dangerous group" between 16 and 18 could not be kept apart from the others, and "it's contrary to law to put them in jail without a special order from a judge."

If the age limit for "juvenile" classification were 16 instead of 18, he said, "it would be a simpler matter."

Previous efforts to have the age limit reduced have failed, committee members recalled, but Coun. G. K. Sammon proposed that the committee make an attempt — "We all agree right here that 18 is too old."

"JUST AS BAD" "Some 15-year-olds and 16-year-olds are just as bad," argued Reeve George Murdoch of Oak Bay.

Reeve A. C. Wurtele of Esquimalt suggested that the older and more recalcitrant juveniles should be detained on the upper floor of the city jail, completely separated from other prisoners. He also suggested that policemen should have more authority, the right to put juveniles in jail at their own discretion without a judge's order.

Coun. Cox, a lawyer, found that suggestion "shocking."

FUTURE SITES The committee also:

● Voted to notify the area's school boards and the education department of its approval of the idea of future school sites being acquired in advance of actual need, in order to save money.

● Recommended that City Solicitor T. P. O'Grady represent Greater Victoria municipalities at a Public Utilities Commission hearing on its plan to rescind a 1952 ruling allowing the B.C. Electric a 6.5-per-cent rate of return on operations.

● Heard that a B.C. Telephone Co. report on the feasibility and cost of setting up a single-alarm-number system for Greater Victoria "shouldn't be too long" in being submitted.

● Decided to seek changes in legislation which in its present state, according to municipal solicitors, is too vague and conflicting to enable Greater Victoria municipalities to "pass effective uniform fireworks laws."

● "Received and filed" a report from the Capital Region Planning Board that a development plan for the Gorge waterway, including a dam at Selkirk Narrows, would cost about $10,000.

● Recommended that the municipalities share on a population basis in a $45,000 donation to Royal Jubilee Hospital, over five years, for a 15-bed psychiatric ward addition.

● Recommended that councils adopt a Christmas and New Year's holiday policy for their employees uniform with the provincial government's; Dec. 26 and 27 and Jan. 2 to be holidays.

Capital Notebook By Peter Bruton

ennial Committee in 1958, is off to Ottawa as assistant to A. Davidson Dunton, president of Carleton University and former head of the CBC.

Doug has been working in B.C. since the centennial job finished but, he explains, "a man has to get back to Canada once in a while."

SWAN SONG: A year ago Monday some of the good burghers of Saanich celebrated Halloween by burning Agriculture Minister Newton P. Steacy in effigy because of his ruling that milk couldn't be sold in 64-ounce containers.

It may be recalled this was the issue so hotly fought by Saanich Sorec MLA John Tisdale.

Mr. Steacy subsequently turned the matter over to the attorney-general's department for prosecution but no action was taken and milk in the containers has been selling at the rate of 1,000 a day.

This Halloween Mr. Steacy, about to be relieved of his portfolio, came up with his own trick or treat. The Milky Way Dairy was given a final ultimatum—stop immediately or else.

WORTH WALK: There's one really solid supporter for the speakers' corner in Beacon Hill Park.

Jack Thompson, 88, says he would gladly walk 88 miles just to see another show like Sunday's. It all reminds him of Hyde Park.

SWITCHES OFF: Yesterday marked the last day of work for F. C. "Cliff" Adams, who retired after some 30 years behind the lines and switches for the B.C. Telephone Co.

He will begin his retirement by travelling to the Adams River, which was named after his great-grandfather.

STORIES CONFIRMED DEPT: As exclusively reported here 13 days ago, Capt. David Groos has thrown his hat in the ring for the Liberal nomination for the Esquimalt-Saanich by-election.

And Einar Gunderson, former B.C. finance minister and close friend of Premier Bennett's, has confirmed the report in the Colonist yesterday that he is seeking the Liberal nomination for the same by-election.

Latest name mentioned as Conservative standard-bearer was that of James A. A. George, who lost out in Oak Bay during the recent provincial election.

Mr. George yesterday said he had been approached by many people asking that he run in the federal field but he "definitely" had decided against the move.

Police Almost Signed Off Radioman's Rapid Rush

EARLY SHOW: Radio announcer Bob Gillingham, "your early morning host on CKDA," didn't know he was the object of a desperate police chase along Douglas the other day. A little late for work, he hurriedly parked his car near the police station, cut through beside a jeweller's store and sprinted off towards the station.

The trouble began when a Colonist carrier boy saw this figure running away from the jewelry store and alerted a policeman who took off in hot pursuit.

There was a dramatic little scene when the policeman rushed into the Douglas Hotel lobby looking for the fugitive who, by this time, was preparing to spin his first disc—blissfully unaware of the whole proceedings.

It was only afterwards, when Bob suddenly thought he could have been shot

Your Problems

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: We invited four couples over for Sunday dinner. After dinner my husband decided to show movies of our trip to the Black Hills. We thought as long as we had the projector out we might as well show the movies of our youngest son. He played catcher for our Little League team and the movies are darling.

One of the couples who had seen the films said, "We've been through this. Do you mind if we leave?"

I was deeply hurt and think they were extremely rude. It wouldn't have killed them to sit through the pictures a second time. After all, they DID eat. Right? — HURT HOSTESS.

Dear Hurt: Must everyone who eats at your house pay for the food by sitting through your movies?

In my book the people weren't rude. They were frank. Most home movies of other people's children are tough enough to take the first time.

P.S. I'll probably be drawn and quartered for this advice, but I'm frank, too!

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 21, have been married seven months and I'm fed up. It isn't at all like I thought it would be.

Bart and I met when I went to work in a large insurance office two years ago. He was married, but his wife was too wrapped up in the children. He said the spark had gone out of his marriage, and I was more his type.

Bart is 13 years older than I am and he swept me off my feet. We had such fun together. It was like in the movies. We were married a month after his divorce was final. In less than three weeks we were fighting about everything and nothing.

Now all he does is sit around and tell me he can't eat the food I cook and I'd better learn "or else." He has long phone conversations with his ex-wife almost every day. It seems something is always going wrong with one of the kids. Every weekend when I want to go somewhere he leaves me alone while he visits "his family."

I'm bored and miserable and I think he'd like to call it quits, too. The trouble is, I have no grounds for divorce. What shall I do? — BEERIE.

Dear Beerie: Age 21, married seven months to a man who divorced his wife because you were "more his type" and now you're complaining because you have no grounds for divorce. What were your grounds for marriage?

Sorry, I have no homey hints on how to make this marriage work nor am I about to tell you how to get a divorce. The ex-wife is holding all the trump cards and it's my guess that eventually he'll be back home with his family, where he should have stayed in the first place.

Are your parents too strict? You can benefit from the experiences of thousands of teenagers if you write for Ann Landers' booklet, "How To Live With Your Parents," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large self-addressed stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

ISLAND HALL HOTEL
PARKSVILLE, V.I., B.C.

Autumn is a lovely time to holiday on Vancouver Island, and the place is Island Hall. Located right on the sea and easy to reach by bus, car or train, it is in the village of Parksville and on the Island Highway. It is hospitable, homelike comfortable. The meals are excellent, home cooked by women cooks. There are rooms with or without private bathrooms, some connecting.

For reservations of a week or longer after Labor Day there is a discount of 10% on regular rates. For reservations write Mary Rutherford, Eileen Allwood, owners-managers, or Phone Churchill 8-303, Parksville.

Mrs. Roy Holmes, B.C. Provincial Commissioner for the Girl Guide Association came from Vancouver yesterday on an official visit. The commissioner was met on arrival by Catherine Daynes, left, Margaret Kerr, Beverley Tuttle and Maureen Grubb. Mrs. Holmes met patrol leaders in St. Matthias Church Hall and later attended a Guide reception in the same hall. Following a luncheon today at the home of Mrs. Hugh Henderson, Mrs. Holmes will go to Duncan.—(Ryan studios.)

Years of Extra Life For Valuable Rugs and Carpets

Do you really know why rugs and carpets wear out? Constant use dulls their beauty by covering bright colors with dirt and grime. But far worse is the grinding away of the actual fibres from which the rug is made by sharp gritty particles deep within the pile. This can be prevented only by professional "deep cleaning" as done by experts at the CARPETORIUM. The people at the CARPETORIUM have the knowledge, use only the finest special cleaning agents and have the best equipment in Western Canada. The cost is most reasonable and estimates are FREE. Phone the CARPETORIUM at EV 3-2861. Only the CARPETORIUM, 1219 Wharf Street, can give your rugs and carpets the professional "deep cleaning" that will guarantee years of extra life. The CARPETORIUM on Wharf, phone EV 3-2861.

Only New inner Circle keeps its shape forever!*

wash it...crush it...it springs...right back!

Now, a really new concept in design, by Peter Pan! Unbelievably, a soft cup bra that never changes its shape, that's soft, soft to the touch, sheer with the magic of lace, and there's no padding, no boning, no wires. You've never worn a soft cup bra like this before!

Put it through the wringer, squeeze it tightly—wash it hundreds of times, NEW INNER CIRCLE comes through good as new—permanently shaped to cling lovingly to your figure.

Dacron & cotton, white $4.00
Nylon lace, black & white $4.00
New Inner Circle available soon in strapless, also longline & torsollette.

*It's the magic of Invisinet, Peter Pan's exclusive miracle fabric.

Don't Hang Boy, Queen's Kin Begs

LONDON — The Queen's cousin, the Earl of Harewood, has appealed for clemency for an 18-year-old boy sentenced to the gallows — first time a member of the Royal Family publicly expressed an opinion on capital punishment.

He and 29 other prominent persons pleaded in The Times for a reprieve for Francis Forsyth who, with Norman Harris, 23, is to hang Nov. 10 for kicking a man to death after robbing him of a few shillings.

Other signers included novelist Kingsley Amis, Canon John Collins of St. Paul's, Baron Harnsworth, philosopher Bertrand Russell, actor Michael Redgrave, artist Augustus John and author J. B. Priestley.

OTTAWA — Andre Bellefeuille, 30, federal government draftsman and self-styled leader of Canada's Nazi party, has been placed on temporary suspension, says Transport Minister Balcer. Bellefeuille had not reported to a Sorel, Que., marine agency since a week-end TV interview.

TEHRAN — Queen Farah's gynecologist says the infant heir to Iran's throne is "very healthy and active in every way."

KINGSTON, Ont. — Royal Military College will confer an honorary degree of doctor of laws upon former governor-general Vincent Massey Friday to mark the opening of the college's new Massey library.

VANCOUVER — A 36-year-old mother of two children almost collapsed in police court when she was given a four-year sentence for drug trafficking. Marie Gildemeister pleaded guilty to having 150 capsules for the purpose of trafficking.

OTTAWA — Irene Rebrin served notice she will appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada against a deportation order. She is again lecturing at UBC.

VATICAN CITY — Pope John will disregard a Vatican custom suspending all papal audiences in the first week of Advent when he receives the Archbishop of Canterbury early next month.

LONDON — D. H. Lawrence's novel Lady Chatterley's Lover was termed a beautiful description of life in the English midlands, as defence counsel Gerald Gardiner gave his closing speech at the trial of Penguin Books, charged under Britain's obscenity laws for publishing an unedited version.

KANSAS CITY — Industrialist Cyrus Eaton says he thinks the U.S. election will be a landslide for Senator John Kennedy because no party can be re-elected when the steel industry is operating at only 50 per cent of capacity.

TORONTO — Rock 'n' roll singer Fabian was mauled by a fan in Maple Leaf Gardens until emcee Herkie Styles swung a chair at the assailant, Richard Fahrian, 19, who then returned to his seat.

TORONTO — Fiery Irish playwright Brendan Behan assured Canadians on a television show he was on the wagon — most of the time — then added jokingly: "I now go down to Greenwich Village and take drugs."

TORONTO — Rev. A. C. Forrest, editor of the United Church Observer, has gone to Cuba as an impartial observer for the United Presbyterian Church of the U.S.

WINNIPEG — Mayor Stephen Juba was so enthusiastic about a new German street-sweeper he almost jammed it by putting a brick in the suction chute. City engineer W. D. Hurst said: "Don't be silly like that again."

HOLLYWOOD — British actress Jean Simmons was married to Hollywood director Richard Brooks. Meanwhile, actress Betty Hutton plans to wed jazz musician Pete Candoli soon.

Police Methods Criticized

Magazine Salesman on Trial

A magazine salesman went on trial in Saanich police court yesterday on a charge of fraud.

Proceedings against Dennis Maxwell Paulson, 1203 Blenheim, were delayed when defence counsel James J.

Proudfoot criticized police methods in dealing with suspects.

GOT TO STOP

"This matter of taking men off the street and taking them somewhere and questioning them has got to stop. It's happening too often," he said.

Prosecutor Kenneth Murphy disagreed. Suspects were usually "asked" to go to the station.

ASKED TWICE

When the question was put to Saanich Det. Robin Stewart, he said he had asked Paulson to go to a woman's home for identification purposes and had then asked him to go to the police station.

Det. Stewart told the court he would not have interfered if Paulson had simply walked away, because "I would have continued that investigation some other way."

HAD COLLECTED

Prosecution evidence indicated Paulson had collected $5 once and $20 twice from Mrs. Gisella Peterson, 77, of 5036 Prospect Lake Road, for a $25 magazine subscription.

The elderly woman told the court "he just tells me I owe $20 and I gave him $20." She said she paid a total of $45 even though she can't read because of poor eyesight.

Det. Stewart said Paulson

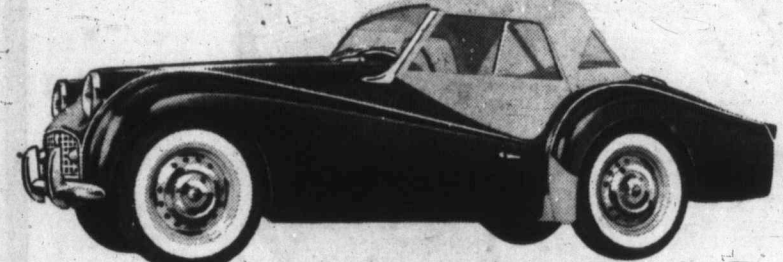

Metro Starts

In Winnipeg

WINNIPEG (CP) — Metropolitan government officials came to Greater Winnipeg Tuesday as 10 newly-elected metropolitan council members were sworn in by Lieutenant-Governor Erick Willis.

Greater Winnipeg is the second area in Canada to have metro government. Toronto was the first.

Winnipeg businessman R. G. H. Bonnycastle was appointed council chairman.

Annual Pre-Christmas Wool Sale!

What could better express "the thought that counts" than something you've made yourself? And so economically too—when you can save so much during the Bay's sale of wool—wool for making mittens for those nieces and nephews, a scarf for the girl next door—a sweater for Dad—a pair of socks for the beau.

Chile Jolted Again

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — A series of three earthquakes sent thousands of men, women and children rushing in panic into the streets and countryside of southern Chile Tuesday.

Destructive quakes last May ravaged the area, killing hundreds and causing $550,000 damage.

Damaged walls crumbled and cracks opened up in some roads, but there were no early reports of severe destruction or casualties.

Polaris Subs Get U.K. Base

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Macmillan told the House of Commons Tuesday Britain will furnish the United States with a base for roving nuclear submarines armed with Polaris missiles.

The site is in Scotland, in the Holy Loch of the River Clyde. February is the planned date for anchoring a submarine tender there. A floating dock will come later.

New Target Says Russia

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio warned Tuesday night that the planned British base for Polaris-carrying United States nuclear-powered submarines will be the target for "an inevitable retaliatory blow" if it is used for aggression.

NEW SESSION
The announcement, heard with hostility by the opposition Labor members, came after the Queen opened a new session of Parliament with the reading of the Throne Speech.

Macmillan said the submarine agreement will "serve and strengthen" the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

RESENT EXPOSURE
Labor members in Commons immediately attacked the Macmillan plan, saying the people of Scotland would resent exposure to destruction. The prime minister replied that a Polaris sub base would be less an enemy target than would bomber bases.

ROUTINE PATROL
Macmillan emphasized that U.S. submarines operating from the base will be on "routine patrol in peacetime" and that their real home ports will still be in the United States.

Of the decision to conclude such an agreement with the United States, he said: "It is in the tradition of Anglo-American co-operation in joint defence carried by successive British governments."

Sub Outpost Opposed By Scottish

GLASGOW (Reuters) — Scots Tuesday night were generally opposed to a base for U.S. submarines with Polaris nuclear missiles which will be established 30 miles from here.

Glasgow's city trades council, representing 95,000 union members, scheduled a protest meeting, saying it was alarmed at the prospect of the base.

At Dunoon, the entrance to the Loch, Provost Mayoress Miss Catherine MacPhail said local people opposed it for fear the tourist industry might be spoiled.

HECTIC TRIP SAVES STRICKEN MOTHER

Luck, Ingenuity Keep Death Away

CAMPBELL RIVER — A 27-year-old mother and her infant daughter are in good condition in hospital here today following a series of emergency measures which would do justice to a Hollywood thriller.

The chance presence of two nurses at a backwoods logging camp, a mercy flight, a commandeered bus, blood transfusions from loggers and an ingenious make-shift ambulance saved the life of Mrs. Violet Johnson after complications set in during childbirth.

REMOTE AREA
Mrs. Johnson was stricken late Saturday night some distance from the Gold River camp of Tahsis Logging Co. on the west coast of Vancouver Island.

An emergency call was relayed to the camp where two nurses from Campbell River Hospital were about to return home after a Klondike Night dance.

TRAINED MIDWIVES
Both nurses, Jessie Boot and Eileen Milne, are trained midwives.

Mrs. Johnson was brought to the camp by boat and gave birth to an eight-pound daughter a short time later.

The nurses decided that Mrs. Johnson, who at this time was hemorrhaging seriously, was too ill to move.

PLANE STARTED

Word was relayed to Campbell River to rush a doctor, blood and transfusion equipment to the camp and shortly after daylight Sunday a B.C. Airlines plane piloted by Gordon Wilkinson took off carrying a physician and hospital technician Sylvia Scheidt.

Part way up the Elk River Valley a wall of fog blocked further progress by air and pilot Wilkinson landed on Upper Campbell Lake.

LUCK HELD
But Mrs. Johnson's luck held up.

A bus en route to Gold River lumbered along one side of the lake and was flagged down by the stranded medical party.

The bus made for the camp at top speed and didn't stop until it reached the logging company's first aid hut, where the ailing mother was being cared for.

LOGGERS' AID
Three pints of blood were administered before the supplies brought from Campbell River were exhausted, then whole blood was taken from a trio of loggers.

As Mrs. Johnson's condition improved, a truck was pressed into service as an ambulance, with a stretcher tied securely across inflated logging truck inner tubes.

BABY SLEPT

Transfusions were continued as the truck bumped over the logging road for more than 50 miles to reach the Campbell River Hospital. The baby slept for most of the drive.

Some 21 hours after she was first stricken Mrs. Johnson was rushed into the hospital operating room for further treatment.

GOOD CONDITION

Hospital officials last night described Mrs. Johnson's condition as good and said the baby showed no ill-effects from the harrowing journey.

Congo Plot Bared

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Chicago Tribune says in its Wednesday edition that it has obtained photostatic copies of documents seized from Patrice Lumumba, the deposed Congo premier, which show he plotted with the Russians to set up a Communist dictatorship.

In addition, the front page Tribune story said, the photostats revealed that Lumumba planned to institute a reign of terror in the African Republic, kill his principal enemies and imprison all others who did not agree with him.

DEPOSED
Lumumba and Congo President Joseph Kasavubu were deposed in a coup d'etat on Sept. 14 by Col. Joseph Mobutu, the Congo's military leader.

In the overthrow, the Tribune said, Lumumba was detained briefly and the "incriminating documents were seized from his briefcase by Congolese troops when he attempted to address them at camp Leopoldville."

HOWARD GREEN

Prod Giants Back to Talks

UNITED NATIONS (CP) — Canada called Tuesday for a sharp-pointed United Nations group to prod the great powers onto the path of disarmament negotiations.

External Affairs Minister Howard Green, presenting a formal Canadian resolution on disarmament to the 99-member UN political committee, proposed the creation of a small special committee of non-nuclear nations to help break the East-West deadlock on disarmament.

WORK FOR TALKS
Green's proposal envisaged the appointment of 10 or 12 countries by the 99-member UN disarmament commission to work toward a renewal of negotiations.

This committee would be separate from the disarmament negotiating body whose work slid into a morass last June because of a walkout on the Communist side.

Small Nations Press Russia

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — Pressure from smaller nations may force the Russians to call off their threatened boycott of United Nations disarmament talks, diplomatic sources said yesterday.

'Canada's UN Role'

Fine Words, Blunders

WILLOWBUNCH, Sask. (CP) — The government should adopt a new policy of action in international affairs, recognizing the needs of the new nations of Asia and Africa, CCF national leader Hazen Argue said Tuesday night.

"Canada's role at the United Nations has been a combination of uttering high-sounding phrases and practising most unfortunate blunders," he told a public meeting.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker's speech in reply to Premier Khrushchev in the general debate was "the culmination of the flood of fine words our delegates have expressed," but was followed 10 days later by a Canadian vote emasculating a resolution which merely asked Premier

Reprisals on British Cars 'Against Tory Promises'

VANCOUVER (CP) — Canadian action against imports of British cars and textiles is "contrary to the fundamental policy on which the government was elected and under which Canadian trade missions abroad are presently attempting to stimulate trade."

Vancouver board of trade said this Tuesday in a letter to Prime Minister Diefenbaker. The board expressed "disappointment and deep concern" at Ottawa's announced intention to revalue imported cars.

Chief Justice Quits Hits Rhodesia Panic

SALISBURY (Reuters) — The chief justice of the Rhodesian Federation, Sir Robert Tredgold, resigned Tuesday in protest against a government crackdown measure proposed last week after riots in African townships.

Tredgold said events had not reached "such a pitch" as to justify the proposed bill, which would "leave a legacy of bitterness that will live for generations."

The proposed maintenance of law and order bill provides for stiff jail penalties and in-lieu protest.

Lords Snubbed for Tony's Title

By ROBERT MUSEL

LONDON (UPI) — Princess Margaret appears to have taken her most dramatic step yet in her behind-the-scenes battle to get a title for her commoner-husband by staying away from the state opening of parliament yesterday.

The lord chamberlain's office said the princess was invited.

But she was not in her usual place with other members of the Royal family when Queen Elizabeth, delivered the speech from the throne.

She was at her house in Kensington Palace — having her hair set. Her husband, former society photographer Antony Armstrong-Jones, was there as well.

Since she attended her first state opening at the age of 18 in 1948, the princess has rarely missed this glittering highlight of the royal year.

Princess Margaret was confidently expected to attend because the opening was filmed in color for the first time and she would have been one of the "stars."

There was considerable speculation among ermine-robed peers about the reasons for her absence. Several felt it was tied to the fact there is no place in the ceremony for Armstrong-Jones.

As he is neither a peer nor a royal prince, he would have been relegated to one of the galleries while his wife sat

among the dignitaries in the House of Lords proper.

Royal circles say the princess has frequently made it clear she will not tolerate any slight to her husband because of his lack of title.

In all their joint appearances thus far — such as film premieres — Margaret has made a point of sharing some of the spotlight with him.

Duncan Job Level Stays High

Sawmills Only Dark Spot

DUNCAN — Employment is remaining at a high level here according to the National Employment Service which yesterday reported fewer unemployment insurance applicants last month.

"Production in the logging industry has been maintained at a high level (during the last month) and is expected to continue well into the winter months unless adverse weather conditions prevail," an NES report states.

SMALL LAYOFFS

"Production in the sawmill industry remained normal with no layoffs. However, it is expected small layoffs will be made during the coming month as the market outlook is not too favorable."

Employment figures remained "at a high level" last month and the number of unemployed male applicants decreased during the period from 410 to 385. List of females dropped from 167 to 151.

UNUSUAL DROP

In an overall outlook, the report states, the price of fluid milk to farmers dropped two to three cents per 100 pounds "which is unusual for this time of year."

Potato crops totalled 2,500 tons and farmers received from $5 to $6 a ton more than was paid last year although this crop was considered normal.

TREE-PLANTING

Tree planting has provided jobs for 15 unemployed loggers as well as 20 others. The B.C. Forest Service is not hiring for this work this year and will only use its permanent staff because of a shortage of seedlings.

Business has generally been favorable during the month with the exception of new and used cars "which remain sluggish."

Real estate improved slightly and insurance brokers report business is steady and collections are good.

Port Alberni Barbecues Old Bonds

PORT ALBERNI — Some $60,000 worth of retired city bonds were barbecued in a brief ceremony at the entrance to the municipal building late Monday.

The ceremony in which the bonds were burned in a portable outdoor barbecue was witnessed by aldermen and city officials.

The burning of the certificates represented the end of the old system of financing bond issues by establishment of a sinking fund. The bonds were those of a waterworks issue of 1930.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. government has suspended the operating certificate of supplemental airline Arctic Pacific Inc., whose chartered plane crashed at Toledo Saturday, killing 22 persons.

Officials said circumstances of the accident "indicate a gross disregard for public safety."

Salt Spring Boxers Dominate Fight Card

FULFORD — Salt Spring Island boxers dominated a recent Salt Spring Island Boxing Club card here with victories in four out of eight events.

Visiting boxers were from Surrey on the lower mainland and from Victoria.

In the 90-pound event Don Morrison of Salt Spring defeated Dick McDiarmid of Surrey, but in the bout for 80-pounders Mark McLafferty of Surrey defeated Salt Spring's Kelly Ryland.

In the same division, Pat Slingsby of the island won over Victoria's Ray Harris.

A second event in the 90-pound class saw Roy Haslam of Salt Spring defeat David Murray of Surrey, while in the 70-pound section Wayne Schlippe slugged his way to victory over John Souza of Victoria.

Victoria's Tom Black defeated Surrey's Dan McDiarmid in the 126-pound division, and Salt Spring's Ted Akerman defeated Victoria PPCLI fighter Harry Clearsky.

Harry Heinz of Victoria defeated Doug Greenhaugh of Salt Spring.

The Salt Spring Boxing Club will meet Surrey in a mainland tournament Saturday and will appear on a Victoria card Oct. 12.

Western Leads To Boy's Death

WORKINGTON, England (Reuters) — Johnnie Robertson, 9, hanged himself after the television set in his home featured a western with a hanging, police said.

Law officers in the western worked out that a character found hanging could not have committed suicide because there was nothing nearby he could have stood on while putting the noose around his neck.

Canada Culturally Sound Club Told by Professor

QUALICUM — Members of the Parksville-Qualicum Canadian Club were assured by Victoria University professor Anthony Emery that Canada has a sound culture.

Title of his address was, "Are Canadians Uncultured?"

He pointed out that a nation that could boast of such institutions as the Canada Council, the CBC and the National Film Board could hardly be regarded as uncultured, and said that in the 7½ years he had been in Canada he had noticed a great difference in the attitude of people toward art, music and the theatre.

Some put the increased interest and appreciation down to the influence of TV, but he said that the Canada Council was more responsible than was generally recognized.

Do your communications rate a second look?

The equipment this receptionist is using rates close inspection. It's the latest type of PABX. (Translation: Private Automatic Branch Exchange.) And it does a whole lot more than just sit there and look handsome. It provides the most efficient telephone service available. Handles up to 90 inside-phones; answers, holds and transfers calls by pushbuttons.

And compact! This office switchboard takes less desk space than a typewriter. Its mechanics are stored away from your reception area. Inter-office and incoming calls are taken on a matching desk phone. Or on a headset if you prefer.

This automatic switchboard gives your receptionist more hours free to type, file, answer correspondence. So easy to use, anyone can pinch-hit for her lunch hours and coffee breaks. It's like hiring help without hiring people.

And the PABX costs less than people. It's rented. You have no capital expenditure, depreciation or maintenance. A moderate monthly rental includes regular service calls from B.C. Telephone.

Modern communications are important to every business. They save you time, save you money, help you sell. From a telephone to a Teletype... all equipment has a lifetime guarantee. Our representative will tailor a complete communications system to suit your business and your budget. He'll be calling on you soon... sooner if you make an appointment through our new Marketing and Sales Department.

Want to know more about our PABX? Have your receptionist phone us. In Vancouver it's MU 3-5511. Outside Vancouver, ask the Operator for Zenith 7000. (No charge for the call.) We'll send you a PABX brochure pronto.

Intermunicipal Plea

Board Asked to Cut Free Pencils, Pads

Free pencils and scribbles for Greater Victoria primary-grade pupils cost the provincial government $671 this year and the municipalities nothing, but municipal leaders yesterday asked the school board to stop supplying them.

Intermunicipal committee was unanimous in the request. The facts and figures were supplied to the committee by school trustee W. C. Gelling, who said the board issued the supplies this year on the recommendation of the inspectors so that all the Grade 1 students would have the right kind of paper and pencils. "The department of education pays the entire cost," he said.

"Same taxpayers," said Reeve George Murdoch of Oak Bay. He and others also expressed fear of the free-issue system expanding and then falling back on the municipalities.

"If parents are told the child has to have a pencil, scribbler and an HB pencil it's a matter of 10 cents," the reeve said.

To New Zealand

Carpenters Interested In Big Shift

Victoria carpenters, hard-hit by unemployment, are showing interest in a New Zealand firm's attempts to recruit tradesmen in this area.

The company is offering a minimum of two years' full-time employment at prevailing New Zealand rates. Applicants have to pay their own passage to New Zealand.

"About eight men are actually listed for interviews," a spokesman for the National Employment Service said last night.

James Moffatt, business agent for the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, said last night unemployment among carpenters in this area is higher than it has been since the depression years of the 1930s.

"We had 150 carpenters out all summer," he said, "and I have no doubt there are 200 out of work now."

Commissioner Courtney Haddock, understood to have proposed an investigation to his fellow commissioners, refused to confirm or deny it but said that "the employees in question have so far not asked for an investigation."

And commission chairman Frank Mulliner also said none of the employees had given reasons for quitting other than disagreement with arena manager Joe Dukowski.

HAPPY TO LISTEN
"If any of them had another reason, and comes along with that, we would be very happy to listen to it," he said.

Kenneth Noakes, arena office manager, and head cashier Mrs. Pat Read led the parade of resignations Oct. 12. Mr. Noakes after 11 years' service and Mrs. Read after eight. Then office secretary Mrs. Mary Jones, two cashiers and a maintenance employee quit.

Mr. Mulliner said a disagreement between Mr. Dukowski and Mr. Noakes was the reason given for Mr. Noakes' resignation, and he described the resignation of the other two permanent staff members as "a friendship proposition."

WHAT DO WE HAVE?
One member of the commission suggested an inquiry, he said, "but as (commissioner) Bill Pinfold said, 'What have we to inquire into?'"

After Mr. Noakes resigned, two members of the city comptroller's department were put to work, part-time, on the arena's bookkeeping, and then two accountants from the arena's auditing firm.

Mr. Mulliner said the result was "a clear sheet" and the running of the office was now under control.

NO NEED
Mayor Percy Scurrell last night saw no need of an inquiry.

"From the information I have at the moment," he said, "I don't think an inquiry is needed. There has been a conflict of personalities up there and it's an internal situation which I think the commission is well able to handle."

Bottle-Hurling Drivers Draw Blast in Alberni

ALBERNI — Behavior of young motorists in the city was the subject of a complaint to city council by the board of trade.

A letter from the board referred to bottle-breaking on the streets, obscene language and the fact that a guard rail had been removed from the log dump area on Victoria Quay, creating a hazard.

Ald. Charles Blair reported that a bottle thrown from a passing car had broken the window of a parked vehicle, and another flying bottle had hit a Boy Scout. With the removal of the guard rail at the log dump there was a chance that a carload of young people would go over the bank into the river, he said.

Reports of drinking in cars parked at the log dump site had been received by Ald. Fred Bishop. He said there was no criticism of the police implied in the reports.

Police made frequent patrols in the vicinity, he said, and the owners of the property had made arrangements for a weekly clean-up where the litter from parked cars had been the subject of previous complaints.

NANAIMO — A string to hold traffic tickets under windshield wipers might be a boon to motorists but it would tie this city's parking meter enforcement system in knots.

That was the opinion of city council last night when a Nanaimo resident made the string suggestion after complaining that he had to answer a summons in connection with a parking ticket he had never seen.

One alderman commended the string idea but Ald. John Cook, chairman of the streets committee, said issuance of a ticket was only a courtesy and that all infractions could be prosecuted by means of a summons.

NANAIMO — The Vancouver Island Exhibition Association has advised city council that it will accept the city's offer of more than $11,000 to retire a credit union note and will issue debentures in the amount of $2,800 to cover the balance of a credit union loan.

However the city is going to study a further suggestion of the exhibition board that they issue debentures in the amount of nearly $15,000 dollars to cover the balance of the association's indebtedness. This is being taken to council in committee for action.

NANAIMO — The first winter works projects of the city of Nanaimo have been approved by Victoria.

Works committee representative Ald. Jack Parker told council that approval was just received from the provincial capital and that it will help the unemployment situation to a small degree.

However, he said that there are so many local residents out of work that out-of-towners should be warned to stay away from the city.

CHAMAINUS — A new dental health officer and a new assistant medical officer have brought the Central Vancouver Island Health unit up to full strength.

Nanaimo city council last night welcomed the news that Dr. F. M. Brunton has been appointed regional dental consultant for the Central, Upper and Southern Vancouver Island health units. This post has been vacant since the beginning of this year when Dr. Percy Arkle left to take a post in another community.

Meanwhile medical health officer Dr. C. J. Mackenzie notified city council that Dr. J. F. Burrows has joined the health unit as assistant director.

DUNCAN

A 21-year-old youth was given three concurrent sentences of nine months in Oakalla's young offenders' unit yesterday and was warned that he could have been given a life sentence.

Antonius Van Aert, 21, was arrested last Friday after having entered a farmhouse which had been kept under surveillance for a week as a result of earlier thefts.

"Your case was gone into carefully," Magistrate A. C.

Sutton told the accused. "I don't know if you realize the seriousness—that an indictable offence makes you liable for imprisonment for life if it is committed in a dwelling house."

Van Aert was sentenced on two charges of breaking, breaking and entering with intent to commit an indictable offence.

"I hope it will be a lesson and that you will straighten up," the youth was told.

Van Aert was apprehended

by dairy farmer Archie Stevenson as result of thefts totaling

NANAIMO — Nanaimo's

mayor may take off for New York at any time and he was told so at Tuesday night's council meeting.

Ald. William MacGregor

praised the honor bestowed on

Joe Sutton of Nanaimo in being named B.C.'s "friend of youth" and said that Mr.

Sutton had chosen the mayor as his travelling companion on the all-expense-paid trip to

New York, which goes with the award.

Alderman MacGregor urged the mayor to accept the offer.

Alderman Jack Piper said that the mayor's wife had told him it was almost impossible to get

Mr. Maffeo to take a holiday and this would do him good.

The mayor said that he was seriously considering the offer and would do his best to accept. Mr. Maffeo and Mr.

Sutton have been personal friends for many years and both have been extremely active in youth work in the

DUNCAN — Construction in some parts of Canada may be on the decline, but figures for North Cowichan and Duncan indicate this year will be just about normal.

From the number of houses built in the two areas during the first 10 months of this year it is becoming obvious that North Cowichan is more than ever becoming Duncan's "bedroom."

And of the estimated $1,300,000 value in building permits for 1960, less than one-third is for home construction.

Permits given so far have been for such desired projects as "milk parlors," and new churches, but the majority of permits, almost 5-to-1, covered small construction jobs under $1,000. They were for such projects as carports and additions to houses.

October permits in the city hit a low not felt since 1953. One new house, a shed and an addition to a house were authorized for a total of only $13,500.

In North Cowichan 20 permits were awarded during October with a combined value of $32,000.

Total permits so far this year in the city amount to $333,268 compared with $857,300 in North Cowichan.

PARKSVILLE — New buildings and traffic signs were the main targets of Halloween pranks in Parksville this year and it was hinted by RCMP that charges may be laid following damage to property.

A new office building which has a stucco finish was badly marked with oil, and a new white Overwheat store not occupied was stained with red.

Numerous other stores and business places were marked with oil and some damage was done at the junior high school and the elementary school playground where goal posts were torn down. About 30 traffic signs were knocked down in Parksville, garbage was strewn over the streets and windows were soaped or defaced with other substances.

PORT ALBERNI — Teachers and trustees of School District 70 have been unable to reach an agreement on teachers' salaries and trustees have appointed Douglas W. Mallory, Port Alberni alderman to act as the board's conciliator.

Ald. Mallory is a former school trustee.

Teachers' demands range from a minimum of $3,200 to a maximum of $8,800.

HECTIC JOURNEY SAVES MOTHER

Lucky Breaks Help Islanders

CAMPBELL RIVER — A 27-year-old mother and her infant daughter are in good condition in hospital here today following a series of emergency measures which would do justice to a Hollywood thriller.

The chance presence of two nurses at a backwoods logging camp, a mere flight, a commandeered bus, blood transfusions from loggers and an ingenious make-shift ambulance saved the life of Mrs. Violet Johnson after complications set in during childbirth.

Mrs. Johnson was stricken late Saturday night some distance from the Gold River camp of Tahsis Logging Co. on the west coast of Vancouver Island.

An emergency call was relayed to the camp where two nurses from Campbell River Hospital were about to return home after a Klondike Night dance.

Both nurses, Jessie Boot and Eileen Milne, are trained midwives.

Mrs. Johnson was brought to the camp by boat and gave birth to an eight-pound daughter a short time later.

The nurses decided that Mrs. Johnson, who at this time was hemorrhaging seriously, was too ill to move.

PLANE STARTED

Word was relayed to Campbell River to rush a doctor, blood and transfusion equipment to the camp and shortly after daylight Sunday a B.C. Airlines plane piloted by Gordon Wilkinson took off carrying a physician and hospital technician Sylvia Scheidt.

Part way up the Elk River Valley a wall of fog blocked further progress by air and pilot Wilkinson landed on Upper Campbell Lake.

LUCK HELD

But Mrs. Johnson's luck held up.

A bus en route to Gold River lumbered along one side of the lake and was flagged down by the stranded medical party.

The bus made for the camp at top speed and didn't stop until it reached the logging company's first aid hut, where the ailing mother was being cared for.

Three pints of blood were administered before the supplies brought from Campbell River were exhausted, then whole blood was taken from a trio of loggers.

As Mrs. Johnson's condition improved, a truck was pressed into service as an ambulance, with a stretcher tied-securely across inflated logging truck inner tubes.

BABY SLEPT

Transfusions were continued as the truck bumped over the logging road for more than 50 miles to reach the Campbell River Hospital. The baby slept for most of the drive.

Some 21 hours after she was first stricken Mrs. Johnson was rushed into the hospital operating room for further treatment.

Hospital officials last night described Mrs. Johnson's condition as good and said the baby showed no ill-effects from the harrowing journey.

Shot Stops Hunted Man

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — Curtis Lee Jones, 38, accused of murder, rape and kidnapping, gave up without a struggle Tuesday after a state patrolman fired a warning shotgun charge over his head.

But she was not in her usual place with other members of the Royal family when Queen Elizabeth delivered the speech from the throne.

She was at her house in Kensington Palace — having her hair set. Her husband, former society photographer Antony Armstrong-Jones, was there as well.

Since she attended her first state opening at the age of 18 in 1948, the princess has rarely missed this glittering highlight of the royal year.

Princess Margaret was confidently expected to attend because the opening was filmed in color for the first time and she would have been one of the "stars."

There was considerable speculation among ermine-robed peers about the reasons for her absence. Several felt it was tied to the fact there is no place in the ceremony for Armstrong-Jones.

As he is neither a peer nor a royal prince, he would have been relegated to one of the galleries while his wife sat

among the dignitaries in the House of Lords proper.

Royal circles say the princess has frequently made it clear she will not tolerate any slight to her husband because of his lack of title.

In all their joint appearances thus far — such as film premieres — Margaret has made a point of sharing some of the spotlight with him.

Polaris Subs Get U.K. Base

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Macmillan told the House of Commons Tuesday Britain will furnish the United States with a base for roving nuclear submarines armed with Polaris missiles.

New Target Says Russia

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio warned Tuesday night that the planned British base for Polaris-carrying United States nuclear-powered submarines will be the target for "an inevitable retaliatory blow" if it is used for aggression.

Sub Outpost Opposed By Scottish

GLASGOW (Reuters) — Scots Tuesday night were generally opposed to a base for U.S. submarines with Polaris nuclear missiles which will be established 30 miles from here.

Glasgow's city trades council, representing 95,000 union members, scheduled a protest meeting, saying it was alarmed at the prospect of the base.

At Dunoon, the entrance to the Loch, Provost Mayoress Miss Catherine MacPhail said local people opposed it for fear the tourist industry might be spoiled.

The site is in Scotland, in the Holy Loch of the River Clyde. February is the planned date for anchoring a submarine tender there. A floating dock will come later.

NEW SESSION

The announcement, heard with hostility by the opposition Labor members, came after the Queen opened a new session of Parliament with the reading of the Throne Speech.

Macmillan said the submarine agreement will "serve and strengthen" the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

RESENT EXPOSURE

Labor members in Commons immediately attacked the Macmillan plan, saying the people of Scotland would resent exposure to destruction. The prime minister replied that a Polaris sub base would be less an enemy target than would bomber bases.

ROUTINE PATROL

Macmillan emphasized that U.S. submarines operating from the base will be on "routine patrol in peacetime" and that their real home ports will still be across the Atlantic in the United States.

Of the decision to conclude such an agreement with the United States, he said:

"It is in the tradition of Anglo-American co-operation in joint defence carried by successive British governments."

Chief Justice Quits Hits Rhodesia Panic

SALISBURY (Reuters) — The chief justice of the Rhodesian Federation, Sir Robert Tredgold, resigned Tuesday in protest against a government crackdown measure proposed last week after riots in African townships.

Tredgold said events had not reached "such a pitch" as to justify the proposed bill, which would "leave a legacy of bitterness that will live for generations."

The proposed maintenance of law and order bill provides for stiff jail penalties and in-lieu protest.

Increased government power in dealing with outbreaks of violence in this central African state.

The bill was introduced after a new vagrancy law came into force empowering the government to round up "loafers and hooligans" and send them to "rehabilitation centres."

The bill now is under consideration by parliament.

Tredgold referred to the bill as "panic action." He said that while chief justice it was not possible for him to publicly protest.

By ROBERT MUSEL

LONDON (UPI)—Princess Margaret appears to have taken her most dramatic step yet in her behind-the-scenes battle to get a title for her commoner-husband by staying away from the state opening of parliament yesterday.

The lord chamberlain's office said the princess was invited.

But she was not in her usual place with other members of the Royal family when Queen Elizabeth delivered the speech from the throne.

She was at her house in Kensington Palace — having her hair set. Her husband, former society photographer Antony Armstrong-Jones, was there as well.

Prod Giants Back to Talks

UNITED NATIONS (CP)—Canada called Tuesday for a sharp-pointed United Nations group to prod the great powers onto the path of disarmament negotiations.

External Affairs Minister Howard Green, presenting a formal Canadian resolution on disarmament to the 99-member UN political committee, proposed the creation of a small special committee of non-nuclear nations to help break the East-West deadlock on disarmament.

WORK FOR TALKS

Green's proposal envisaged the appointment of 10 or 12 countries by the 99-member UN disarmament commission to work toward a renewal of negotiations.

This committee would be separate from the disarmament negotiating body whose work slid into a morass last June because of a walkout on the Communist side.

Chile Jolted Again

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — A series of three earthquakes sent thousands of men, women and children rushing in panic into the streets and countryside of southern Chile Tuesday.

Destructive quakes last May ravaged the area, killing hundreds and causing at least $550,000,000 damage.

Damaged walls crumbled and cracks opened up in some roads, but there were no early reports of severe destruction or casualties.

'Don't Nurse Negroes'

SALISBURY (Reuters) — The white extremist "Rhodesian republic army" has made a telephone threat aimed at white nurses treating Negroes at a nearby Southern Rhodesian hospital, it was reported today.

Juror Fined For Drinking

VANCOUVER (CP)—W. L. Ash, a member of an assize court jury, was fined $25 by Mr. Justice T. W. Brown Tuesday for appearing in court intoxicated.

The justice called Ash before him moments after the jury returned from lunch. He found him guilty of contempt of court and discharged him as a juror.

Theatre Manager Charged with Theft

VANCOUVER (CP)—John Panucker, former manager of the $6,000,000 city-owned Queen Elizabeth theatre, Tuesday night was arrested and charged with theft of $20,917 and forgery.

Bail was set at $10,000, pending Panucker's appearance in police court today.

Panucker was suspended more than a month ago. He was named theatre manager in December, 1957, at $637 a month.

He is charged with theft of $12,053 from the city of Vancouver, $5,000 from the Burrard Lions Activities Society, $3,426 from the Dominion Drama Festival, $250 from the Northwest Releasing Co. and $188 from the Vancouver Medical Association.

The other charges allege he dealt with 18 forged theatre payroll cheques as if they were genuine, while knowing the cheques were forged.

Reprisals on British Cars 'Against Tory Promises'

VANCOUVER (CP)—Canadian action against imports of British cars and textiles is "contrary to the fundamental policy on which the government was elected and under which Canadian trade missions abroad are presently attempting to stimulate trade."

Vancouver board of trade said this Tuesday in a letter to Prime Minister Diefenbaker. The board expressed "disappointment and deep concern" at Ottawa's announced intention to revalue imported cars.
